Budge, 2017-09-18 Excerpt from Coptic Apocrypha in the Dialect of Upper Egypt Seventh Heaven and the reconciliation of God with Adam and his sons in the presence of myriads of Cherubim Seraphim Archangels Angels Thrones Dominions Principalities Powers and all the hosts of heaven Here and there in the work there are passages that resemble parts of the mediaeval composition known as the Harrowing of Hell but its contents are entirely different from those of the second part of the Gospel of Nicodemus which deals with Christ's Descent into Hell The whole Apocryphon exhibits strong Egyptian influence and professes to give the actual words of the divine unknown language in which our Lord and the Virgin Mary spoke to each other The manuscript from which the text is edited was written probably in the tenth or eleventh century and it was presented to the church of Illarte by an unknown named benefactor who states in the colophon that he supplied his own parchment The form of the name Illarte suggests that this church was situated in Nubia perhaps near the modern town of Wadi Halfah In view of the importance of the work and the very mutilated condition of the text the Trustees ordered a complete facsimile of the manuscript To be made and published with the text plates I XLVIII Two of the Apocrypha printed in this volume deal with Saint John the Apostle The text of the first is edited from the vellum manuscript Oriental N 82 which was written in the seven hundred and sixth year of Diocletian or the Era of the Martyrs i.e. A.D. 990 It states that Saint John was in Ephesus About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
