Cote Ci Cote La:

Cote Ci Cote la John Mendes, 1986-01-01      Cote Ci, Cote la John Mendes, 1986      Côté Ci Côté Là John Mendes, 2012      Côté Ci Côté la John Mendes, 2010      Race, Culture, and Identity Shireen K. Lewis, 2006-01-01 In this groundbreaking book Shireen Lewis gives a comprehensive analysis of the literary and theoretical discourse on race culture and identity by Francophone and Caribbean writers beginning in the early part of the twentieth century and continuing into the dawn of the new millennium Examining the works of Patrick Chamoiseau Raphaël Confiant Aimé Césaire Léopold Senghor Léon Damas and Paulette Nardal Lewis traces a move away from the preoccupation with African origins and racial and cultural purity toward concerns of hybridity and fragmentation in the New World or Diasporic space In addition to exploring how this shift parallels the larger debate around modernism and postmodernism Lewis makes a significant contribution by arguing for the inclusion of Martinican intellectual Paulette Nardal and other women into the canon as significant contributors to the birth of modern black Francophone literature      A Dougla's Tale Erma Jacob, 2021-11-09 This book captures life on the Caribbean island nation of Trinidad in the 1950s and 1960s A collection of autobiographical tales is told from the perspective of the author as a young girl growing up in an inter racial family in the idyllic inter cultural village of Flanagan Town in Central Trinidad Life on the island is vividly described through the use of Trinidadian Creole and Standard English The stories are told with humour as the illiterate bold clever yet flawed matriarch of the family Popo works tirelessly to ensure that her children will have an education and an easier life than she had The author captures the acceptance and respect the peoples of this diverse community have for each other and each other's cultures The first time author has been living in Canada for the past 50 years      Reminiscing Kenrick B. Maharaj, 2018-07-23 This book is a compendium of short stories of my youth growing up in the island of Trinidad in the 1950s and 60s My 32 Chevy The year was 1961 and I was still in high school I lived in Trinidad at the time This 32 Chevy was the apple of my eye Trinidad was a British colony and all we had were English cars An American car was a luxury and a 32 Chevy was a rarity I would dream about this car I would picture myself sitting behind the steering wheel cruising up High Street the main drag in San Fernando my hometown My friends would be envious and the girls would dote over me for having such a cool car Some time passed and I stopped seeing this car on the road The Racing Bike I got my first bike at the age of twelve In Trinidad in the 1950s a bicycle was an essential means of transport Few people could afford cars The bicycle was the dependable machine that took you everywhere on the island to work to school to the beach across town to visit friends and relatives to the shop to buy goods and downtown to hang with the boys A Memorable Tobago Adventure The first time I visited Tobago was in 1963 I went with my best friends Wahid Bissoon Karl George and Hamid Wahids younger brother It was Easter and we had carefully planned this adventure to see the famous Tobago crab races and attend other Easter boat races and sport festivities on the beach Fondest Memories of Christmases Past Christmas is the happiest time of the year for mealways was and always will be Growing up in Trinidad

Christmas was celebrated by everyone The whole island celebrated Christmas Christmas was spree time Every house stocked up with sweet drinks Coca Cola Pepsi Solo Red Spot and Cannings Fernandes Rum babash homemade rum Cherry Brandy Guinness Mackeson XXX Stout and Carib beer to offer friends relatives and neighbors who could drop in at any time for a Christmas toast An Avocado Story The avocado fruit is native to Central and South America and has been around in these areas since 8000 BC It was introduced to the Caribbean Jamaica in the mid seventeenth century and the Tropical Asian regions in the mid 1800s The avocado arrived in the United States in the early twentieth century specifically in California and Florida

The Snakes of Trinidad and Tobago Hans E. A. Boos, 2001 Scientific fact meets island folklore as Hans Boos presents more than sixty species of snakes found in the twin island independent Caribbean nation of Trinidad and Tobago The culmination of thirty years of collecting and observing the snakes of these islands The Snakes of Trinidad and Tobago engagingly informs readers about these often feared and misunderstood creatures Tracing the contributions of scientists to the evolving taxonomy of the islands reptiles Boos describes each unique species of snake found on the two islands including local names from two centuries back Species accounts come complete with tales both documented and apocryphal of human encounters with the more dangerous island snakes Forty eight color photographs and fifty black and white photographs and pieces of line art most by the author illustrate the text and aid in identification While tiny Tobago is mercifully devoid of poisonous snakes Trinidad hosts four venomous species including coral snakes and the notorious bushmaster Boos refutes many of the myths about these deadly but usually nonaggressive snakes with information about their habits and behavior He also writes about the giant anaconda and the boa constrictor about which many half truths and fictions abound All snakes bite but only a few species are venomous Boos gives information about what to do and what not to do in the event of a bite and discusses intriguing folk medicine cures such as the Belgian Black Stone sure to work only if a bite was harmless to begin with The Snakes of Trinidad and Tobago will find an enthusiastic audience among herpetologists ecologists and other scientists concerned about the snakes and wildlife of Trinidad and Tobago the Caribbean and South America It will also appeal to general readers interested in snakes and in Caribbean folklore

The Grenada Revolution Wendy C. Grenade, 2015-01-28 Grenada experienced much turmoil in the 1970s and 1980s culminating in an armed Marxist revolution a bloody military coup and finally in 1983 Operation Urgent Fury a United States led invasion Wendy C Grenade combines various perspectives to tell a Caribbean story about this revolution weaving together historical accounts of slain Prime Minister Maurice Bishop the New Jewel Leftist Movement and contemporary analysis There is much controversy Though the Organization of American States formally requested intervention from President Ronald Reagan world media coverage was largely negative and skeptical if not baffled by the action which resulted in a rapid defeat and the deposition of the Revolutionary Military Council By examining the possibilities and contradictions of the Grenada Revolution the contributors draw upon thirty years of hindsight to illuminate a crucial period of the Cold War Beyond geopolitics the book interrogates but transcends the nuances and peculiarities of Grenada's political history to situate this revolution in its larger Caribbean and global context. In doing so, contributors seek to unsettle old debates while providing fresh understandings about a critical period in the Caribbean's postcolonial experience. This collection throws into sharp focus the centrality of the Grenada Revolution, offering a timely contribution to Caribbean scholarship and to wider understanding of politics in small developing postcolonial societies.

Saga Boy Antonio Michael Downing, 2021-09-14. A Black immigrant journeys from the Caribbean to Canada and through multiple musical personas in a deeply moving memoir suffused with poetic prose. Publishers Weekly starred review. As a clever willful boy in a tiny village in the tropical forests of Trinidad raised by his indomitable grandmother Miss Excellly and her King James Bible, Antonio Michael Downing is steeped in the legacies of his scattered family, the vibrant culture of the island, and the weight of its colonial history. But after Miss Excellly's death, everything changes. The eleven-year-old seems to fall asleep in the jungle and wake up in a blizzard; he is sent to live with his devoutly evangelical Aunt Joan in rural Canada, where they are the only Black family in a landscape starkly devoid of the warm lushness of his childhood. Isolated and longing for home, Downing begins a decades-long journey to transform himself through music and performance. A reunion with his birth parents, whom he's known only through story, closes more doors than it opens. Instead, Downing seeks refuge in increasingly extravagant musical personalities: Mic Dainjah, a boisterous punk rapper; Molasses, a soul crooner; and finally, an eccentric dystopian era pop star clad in leather and gold, John Orpheus. In his mid-thirties, increasingly addicted to escapism, attention, and sex, Downing realizes he has become a Saga Boy, a Trinidadian playboy archetype like his father and grandfather before him. When his choices land him in a jail cell, Downing must face who he has become. Lush language and sensory details make the fascinating events of this memoir pop. An authentic, entertaining, and timely account of a creative immigrant's experiences. Booklist. Downing's elegant, engaging memoir will have particular significance to readers from the Caribbean diaspora, but it will be understood by any reader who has ever had their world suddenly upended and needed to make it whole again. Library Journal. A rich memoir about how far some folks have to travel just to arrive where they began. Minneapolis Star Tribune.

Nationalism and Identity Stefano Harney, 1996. The nation state of Trinidad and Tobago offers a unique case for the study of the forces and ideologies of nationalism. This book reveals how this ethnically diverse nation—40% African origin, 40-45% East Indian origin, plus those of Syrian, Chinese, Portuguese, French, and English descent—-independent for less than forty years has provided fertile ground for the creative tension between the imagination of the writer in his or her search for a habitable text of identity and the official discourse on nationalism in Trinidad and Tobago. This discourse has in turn been embedded in a struggle that propels the nation's story. Following on from this background, the study examines the changes and influences on the sense of nationalism and peoplehood caused by migration and the ethnicization of migrant communities in the metropolises.
