

Psychotherapy Progress Note

Use this note to document individual, family or couples psychotherapy sessions and person's response to the intervention during a specific contact.

Data Field
Person's Name	Record the first name, last name, and middle initial of the person. Order of name is at agency discretion.
Record Number	Record your agency's established identification number for the person.
Person's DOB	Record the person's date of birth.
Organization Name:	Record the organization for whom you are delivering the service.
Modality	Check appropriate box to indicate the type of session: individual, family or couple.
List Name(s) of Person(s) Present	Check appropriate box to indicate whether the person is Present, is a No Show/Cancelled or the Provider Cancelled. For cancellations, complete Explanation as needed. Check appropriate box to indicate if others are present, list name(s) and relationship(s) to person.
Person's Report of Progress Towards Goals/Objectives Since Last Session	Document person's self-report of progress towards goals since last session including other sources of information, such as family, case manager, etc.
New Issue(s) Presented Today	There are four options available for staff using this section of the progress note: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. If person does not report/present any new issues, mark "None Reported" and proceed to planned intervention/goals.</li> <li>2. If person reports a new issue that was resolved during the session, check the "New Issue resolved, no CA Update required" box. Briefly document the new issue, identify the interventions used in the Therapeutic Interventions Section, and indicate the resolution in the Response Section of the progress note. Example: Person described being involved in a minor car accident today. Person was not hurt but expressed concern regarding expense of car repair. Person felt more relieved after identifying ways to cover expense over the next two weeks.</li> <li>3. If person presents an issue that has been previously assessed and for which Goals/Objectives and services have been ordered, then the information may be briefly documented as an indicator of the progress or lack of progress achieved.</li> <li>4. If person presents any new issue(s) that represent a therapeutic need that is not already being addressed in the IAP, check box indicating a "CA Update Required" and record notation that new issue has been recorded on a Comprehensive Assessment Update of the same Date and write detailed narrative on the appropriate CA Update as instructed in this manual. Also, the newly assessed therapeutic information may require a new goal, objective, therapeutic intervention or service that will require further use of the IAP Review/Revision form.</li> </ol> Example: Person reported for the first time that she was a victim of abuse/neglect at the age of twelve as recorded on the Comprehensive Assessment Update of this date.

Client Management and WHO's ICF model      Pedretti's Occupational Therapy - E-Book Heidi McHugh Pendleton, Winifred Schultz-Krohn, 2024-03-25 2025 Textbook and Academic Authors Association TAA McGuffey Longevity Award Winner
Selected for 2025 Doody's Core Titles with Essential Purchase designation in Occupational Therapy Gain the knowledge and skills you need to treat clients/patients with physical disabilities Pedretti's Occupational Therapy Practice Skills for Physical Dysfunction 9th Edition uses a case-based approach threaded through each chapter to provide a solid foundation in evaluation, intervention, and clinical reasoning. The text continues to support the entry-level occupational therapist and the experienced occupational therapist focused on expanding skills and knowledge. With the OT practice framework as a guide, you will focus on the core concepts and central goals of client care. And by studying threaded case studies, you will learn to apply theory to clinical practice. Written by a team of expert OT educators and professionals led by Heidi McHugh Pendleton and Winifred Schultz-Krohn, this edition includes an eBook free with each new print purchase featuring a fully searchable version of the entire text. UNIQUE Threaded case studies begin and are woven through each chapter, helping you develop clinical reasoning and decision-making skills and to apply concepts to real-life clinical practice. UNIQUE Ethical Considerations boxes examine the obligation to collaborate with clients on their care using evidence to select treatment options. UNIQUE OT Practice Notes convey important tips and insights into professional practice. Illustrated evidence-based content provides a foundation for practice, especially relating to evaluation and intervention. Information on prevention rather than simply intervention or treatment shows how OTs can take a proactive role in client care. Focus on health promotion and wellness addresses the role of the occupational therapist in what the AOTA has identified as a key practice area. Content on cultural and ethnic diversity is included in every chapter, reflecting occupational therapy's commitment to this important issue. Key terms, chapter outlines, and chapter objectives highlight the information you can expect to learn from each chapter.

Physical Therapy Documentation Mia Erickson, Mia L. Erickson, Rebecca McKnight, Ralph Utzman, 2008 Complete accurate documentation is one of the essential skills for a physical therapist. Parsons, 2015-02-11 A blueprint for doing clinical work in the field. Field Experience: Transitioning from Student to Professional aids students in developing their professional identity on their journey toward becoming a counselor. Authors Najjian Zhang and Richard D. Parsons help students integrate the knowledge they learn across the curriculum by presenting a roadmap of how to start, navigate, and finish a practicum or internship. Throughout the book, coverage of CACREP standards, case illustrations, exercises, and real-life examples create an accessible overview of the entire transitioning process. Field Experience is part of the SAGE Counseling and Professional Identity Series, which targets specific competencies identified by CACREP Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Programs.      Clinical Assessment in Counseling and Psychotherapy Robert Henley Woody, Jane Divita Woody, 1972      The Counselor's Steps for Progress Notes Rhonda Sutton, 2015-06-21 Dr. Rhonda Sutton's second edition of the straightforward guide to progress notes includes additional examples, information, documentation, and clinical language that expands on the utility and readability of the first book. Additional case studies provide examples of how to use the STEPs to format notes. New chapters include information on clinical language and documentation. This book covers everything about progress notes from how to write them to how to store them and even what to do when someone requests to them. In addition, clinical terms and abbreviations are included as well as suggestions for other clinical documentation such as termination letters, privacy statements, and professional disclosure statements. Suited for all types of mental health clinicians, this book will help therapists improve upon their progress notes and other forms of clinical documentation. Note Designer Patricia Csank Baldwin, 2023. This second edition of Note Designer provides step-by-step guidelines, tips, and instruction on how to create and write psychotherapy treatment notes and reports. The book includes information and guidance on how to write intake reports, treatment plans, treatment progress notes for individual psychotherapy, couples therapy, and child and family therapy, risk assessments, and termination reports. A number of sample notes, reports, and templates are provided. The book also includes hundreds of representative statements for therapists to use in their own progress notes and reports. A valuable resource for experienced mental health professionals and trainees alike.

Client-counselor Communication and Interaction in Counseling with the Mentally Retarded M. Jane Ayer, 1969

Principles Of Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy Lester Luborsky, 1984-06-26. In this splendid book, a master psychotherapist, one of the field's most respected researchers, provides the first definitive account of psychoanalytic psychotherapy in manual format. What distinguishes this book from other guides to therapy is the way in which the author systematically demystifies the therapeutic process, taking the reader step by step through a sequence of specific intervention strategies. The book offers the essence of psychoanalytic psychotherapy by extracting the treatment principles from Freud's six papers on technique and the Menninger Foundation tradition of supportive-expressive psychotherapy. At the heart of the expressive techniques is the Core Conflictual Relationship Theme method of delineating the transference pattern and providing a focus for the therapist's responses. Both the short-term and the usual open-ended treatment are presented. Each technique is illustrated by clinical vignettes. Precise measurement scales for each technique make it easy to evaluate the therapist's performance. Therapists, clinical supervisors, and researchers will all find this book to be a valuable source of practical information and inspiration. Interpersonal Process in Therapy Edward Teyber, 2006.
