Above and Beyond the Writing Workshop Shelley Harwayne, 2023-10-10 When writing workshops first blossomed in classrooms its hallmarks were genuine curiosity individual choice quality conversations and engaging children's literature A joyous hum of intention creativity and craft enlivened the school day Today's teachers are often faced with a range of obstacles as new initiatives are embraced mandates handed down and scripted programs are purchased Sometimes teachers must sacrifice the original principles of the writing workshop and lose the creative venue they provide Above and Beyond the Writing Workshop is filled with original writing challenges designed to bring back the spirit of the original writing workshop model and encourage teachers to enhance it with invention innovation and inspiration Teaching creative writing is not only possible but an important process in their instruction Author Shelley Harwayne invites teachers to keep the workshop spirit alive by Encouraging professional conversations on classroom ideas and methods between colleagues Developing writing cues that allow young writers to be inquisitive outspoken and independent Showing how high quality writing can make a difference Offering an inspired and stimulating outlet for students to express their passions Harwayne's book will help teachers encourage students to write the world around them which can generate more critical thinking and make for a more well rounded child

All the Colors We Will See Patrice Gopo, 2018-08-07 Patrice Gopo grew up in Anchorage Alaska the child of Jamaican immigrants who had little experience being black in America From her white Sunday school classes as a child to her early days of marriage in South Africa to a new home in the American South with a husband from another land Patrice's life is a testament to the challenges and beauty of the world we each live in a world in which cultures overlap every day In All the Colors We Will See Patrice seamlessly moves across borders of space and time to create vivid portraits of how the reality of being different affects her quest to belong In this poetic and often courageous collection of essays Patrice examines the complexities of identity in our turbulent yet hopeful time of intersecting heritages As she digs beneath the layers of immigration questions and race relations Patrice also turns her voice to themes such as marriage and divorce the societal beauty standards we hold and the intricacies of living out our faith With an eloquence born of pain and longing Patrice's reflections guide us as we consider our own journeys toward belonging challenging us to wonder if the very differences dividing us might bring us together after all
