Week One

(starting ____/____)

Teaching points for this week: Review participles, compound sentences, and the understood you. Point out that for can be a preposition or a coordinating conjunction depending on how it's used. Discuss the difference between adverbial and adjectival prepositional phrases. In most cases, an adverbial prepositional phrase can be moved within the sentence while an adjectival one cannot. Help students figure out that thy means your. Note that some people prefer to label possessive pronouns as adjectives. If your students have not diagrammed before, consider drawing the diagram lines for them to fill in for the first few weeks. (quotation by Ralph Waldo Emerson)

Monday: Identify parts of speech including noun (type), pronoun (type, case, person), verb (type and tense), adverb, adjective, article, preposition, conjunction (type), interjection, infinitive, gerund, participle.

adv/prep adv prep art n prep 2 pos pro n cc n adv/prep art part n go often to the house of thy friend for weeds choke the unused path

Tuesday: Identify sentence parts including simple and complete subject, simple and complete predicate (transitive or intransitive verb), direct object, indirect object, predicate nominative, predicate adjective, appositive or appositive phrase, prepositional phrase (adjective or adverb), object of preposition, noun of direct address, infinitive phrase, object of infinitive, participial phrase, object of participle, gerund phrase, object of gerund.

S vt adv prep n prep 2 pos pro n cc S vt art part n
 (you) go often to the house of thy friend for weeds choke the unused path
adv prep ph adv prep ph

Wednesday: Identify clauses (independent, adverb dependent, adjective dependent, noun dependent), sentence type (simple, compound, complex, compound-complex), and purpose (declarative, interrogative, exclamatory, imperative).

[go often to the house of thy friend] for [weeds choke the unused path]
ind cl ind cl cl/imp

Thursday: Add correct punctuation and capitalization.

Go often to the house of thy friend, for weeds choke the unused path.

Friday: Diagram the sentence.

Steiner,Keith Neilson,2017-04-25 How and why did Britain become involved in the First World War Taking into account the scholarship of the last twenty five years this second edition of Zara S Steiner s classic study thoroughly revised with Keith Neilson explores a subject which is as highly contentious as ever While retaining the basic argument that Britain went to war in 1914 not as a result of internal pressures but as a response to external events Steiner and Neilson reject recent arguments that Britain became involved because of fears of an invented German menace or to defend her Empire Instead placing greater emphasis than before on the role of Russia the authors convincingly argue that Britain entered the war in order to preserve the European balance of power and the nation s favourable position within it Lucid and comprehensive Britain and the Origins of the First World War brings together the bureaucratic diplomatic economic strategical and ideological factors that led to Britain s entry into the Great War and remains the most complete survey of the pre war situation Society Records American Society of Mechanical Engineers,1978 Congressional Record United States.
