Cosmopolitan Archaeologies Lynn Meskell, 2009-04-17 A collection exploring the implications of applying the cosmopolitan ideals of obligations to others and respect for cultural difference to archaeological practice Cosmopolitan Archaeologies Lynn Meskell, 2009-04-17 An important collection Cosmopolitan Archaeologies delves into the politics of contemporary archaeology in an increasingly complex international environment The contributors explore the implications of applying the cosmopolitan ideals of obligation to others and respect for cultural difference to archaeological practice showing that those ethics increasingly demand the rethinking of research agendas While cosmopolitan archaeologies must be practiced in contextually specific ways what unites and defines them is archaeologists acceptance of responsibility for the repercussions of their projects as well as their undertaking of heritage practices attentive to the concerns of the living communities with whom they work These concerns may require archaeologists to address the impact of war the political and economic depredations of past regimes the livelihoods of those living near archaeological sites or the incursions of transnational companies and institutions The contributors describe various forms of cosmopolitan engagement involving sites that span the globe They take up the links between conservation natural heritage and ecology movements and the ways that local heritage politics are constructed through international discourses and regulations They are attentive to how communities near heritage sites are affected by archaeological fieldwork and findings and to the complex interactions that local communities and national bodies have with international sponsors and universities conservation agencies development organizations and NGOs Whether discussing the toll of efforts to preserve biodiversity on South Africans living near Kruger National Park the ways that UNESCO s global heritage project universalizes the ethic of preservation or the Open Declaration on Cultural Heritage at Risk that the Archaeological Institute of America sent to the U S government before the Iraq invasion the contributors provide nuanced assessments of the ethical implications of the discursive production consumption and governing of other people s pasts Contributors O Hugo Benavides Lisa Breglia Denis Byrne Chip Colwell Chanthaphonh Alfredo Gonz lez Ruibal Ian Hodder Ian Lilley Jane Lydon Lynn Meskell Sandra Arnold Scham A

Companion to Heritage Studies William Logan, Mairéad Nic Craith, Ullrich Kockel, 2015-10-12 A Companion to Heritage Studies BLACKWELL COMPANIONS TO ANTHROPOLOGY A Companion to Heritage Studies This Companion provides a gateway to heritage studies for students and scholars alike Taken together the essays testify to how exciting and dynamic this field has become Valdimar Tr Hafstein University of Iceland Interdisciplinary and international in scope A Companion to Heritage Studies succeeds in bringing together critical and practical historicizing and future oriented scholarship on what has become an all pervasive global interest and industry passion and resource Regina F Bendix G ttingen University Germany A vast and complete overview of the contemporary challenges of heritage preservation and management This is an important book for practitioners planners and policy makers The Companion fills a gap and helps address many of the uncomfortable questions heritage preservation is facing today Francesco Bandarin Special Advisor to UNESCO for Heritage and Professor University Iuav of Venice A Companion to Heritage Studies is a comprehensive state of the art survey of the interdisciplinary study of cultural heritage. Featuring a substantial framework setting essay by the editors and contributions from an international array of scholars including some with extensive experience in heritage practice through UNESCO the World Heritage Centre ICOMOS and national heritage systems this Companion offers a cutting edge guide to this emergent and increasingly important field that is global in scope cross cultural in focus and critical in approach. The selected essays have been innovatively organized into three sections on the expansion use and abuse and the recasting of heritage. The Companion covers all of the key themes in research including old and new outlooks on cultural heritage and its management heritage as a form of cultural politics the emergence of critical heritage studies the role of heritage in times of rapid change and conflict heritage in environmental protection the rise of intangible heritage museums and digital heritage World Heritage and tourism and heritage ethics and human rights. A Companion to Heritage Studies will be an invaluable resource for students and scholars of anthropology archeology and cultural studies as well as anyone interested in better understanding the historical social and political significance of heritage.

Rooted Cosmopolitanism, Heritage and the Question of Belonging

Lennart Wouter Kruijer, Miguel John Versluys, Ian Lilley, 2024-03-21 This book explores the analytical and practical value of the notion of rooted cosmopolitanism for the field of cultural heritage. Many concepts of present day heritage discourses such as World Heritage local heritage practices or indigenous heritage tend to elide the complex interplay between the local and the global entanglements that are investigated as glocalisation in Globalisation Studies. However no human group ever creates more than a part of its heritage by itself. This book explores an exciting new alternative in scholarly critical heritage discourse the notion of rooted cosmopolitanism a way of making manifestations of globalised phenomena comprehensible and relevant at local levels. It develops a critical perspective on heritage and heritage practices bringing together a highly varied yet conceptually focused set of stimulating contributions by senior and emerging scholars working on the heritage of localities across the globe. A contextualising introduction is followed by three strongly theoretical and methodological chapters which complement the second part of the book six concrete empirical chapters written in response to the more theoretical chapters. Two final reflective conclusions bring together these different levels of analysis. This book will appeal primarily to archaeologists anthropologists heritage professionals and museum curators who are ready to be confronted with innovative and exciting new approaches to the complexities of cultural heritage in a globalising world. Handbook of Postcolonial Archaeology Jane Lydon, Uzma Z Rizvi, 2016-07-01 This essential handbook explores the relationship between the postcolonial critique and the field of archaeology a discipline that developed historically in conjunction with European colonialism and imperialism. In aiding the movement to decolonize the profession the contributors to this volume themselves from six continents and many representing indigenous and minority communities and disadvantaged countries suggest strategies to strip archaeological theory and practice of its colonial heritage and create a discipline sensitive to its inherent inequalities Summary articles review the emergence of the discipline of archaeology in conjunction with colonialism critique the colonial legacy evident in continuing archaeological practice around the world identify current trends and chart future directions in postcolonial archaeological research Contributors provide a synthesis of research thought and practice on their topic The articles embrace multiple voices and case study approaches and have consciously aimed to recognize the utility of comparative work and interdisciplinary approaches to understanding the past This is a benchmark volume for the study of the contemporary politics practice and ethics of archaeology Sponsored by the World Archaeological Congress

The Nature of Heritage Lynn Meskell,2011-08-26 The Nature of Heritage The New South Africa is unique in revealing the conflicts inherent in preserving both natural and cultural heritage by examining the archaeological ethnographic and economic evidence of a nation's attempts to master its past and its future Provides a classic example of how nations attempt to overcome a negative heritage through past mastering of their histories Evaluates the continuing dominance of nature and conservation over concerns for cultural heritage Employs ethnographic and archaeological methodologies to reveal how the past is processed into a new national heritage Identifies heritage as therapy exemplified in the strategy for repairing legacies of racial and ethnic difference in post apartheid South Africa Highlights the role of archaeological heritage sites national parks and protected areas in economic development and social empowerment Explores how nature trumps culture and the global implications of the new configurations of heritage

Global Heritage Lynn Meskell,2015-06-22 Examines the social cultural and ethical dimensions of heritage research and practice and the underlying international politics of protecting cultural and natural resources around the globe Focuses on ethnographic and embedded perspectives as well as a commitment to ethical engagement Appeals to a broad audience from archaeologists to heritage professionals museum curators to the general public The contributors comprise an outstanding team representing some of the most prominent scholars in this broad field with a combination of senior and emerging scholars and an emphasis on international contributions
