How Terrorists Learn Carolin Görzig, Michael Fürstenberg, Florian Köhler, Imad Alsoos, 2023-09-01 This volume helps us understand the transformations of terrorist organisations and the conflicts they are involved in by broadening the perspective on what is considered terrorist learning Using a variety of methodological approaches and empirical data the volume offers a look at the clandestine inner lives of groups from different continents and ideological backgrounds in order to explore from whom they learn and how and what the outcomes are Their internal and external interactions are examined within their socio political contexts to illuminate how they adapt to challenges or fail to do so Unpacking the question of how do terrorists learn helps us to grasp not only changes of violent means of action but also of operational and strategic approaches and ultimately even transformations of the ends pursued The chapters demonstrate that terrorist learning is not principally different from that of other human organisations The contributors draw on conceptual frameworks of organizational learning but also broaden the scope beyond the organizational framework to acknowledge the variety of forms of informal and decentralized learning characteristic of much contemporary terrorism This book will be of much interest to students of terrorism studies violent extremism organisational studies and International Relations

State Responses to Crimes of Genocide Ewelina U.

Ochab,David Alton,2022-06-08 At the time of drafting the UN Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide Genocide Convention the drafters were hopeful that the document will be the response needed to ensure that the world would never again witness such atrocities as committed by the Nazi regime While arguably there has been no such great loss of human lives as during WWII genocidal incidents have and still take place After WWII we have witnessed the genocides in Cambodia Rwanda Bosnia Darfur to name only a few The responses to these atrocities have always been inadequate Every time the world leaders would come together to renew their promise of Never Again However the promise has never materialised In 2014 Daesh unleashed genocide against religious minorities in Syria and Iraq Before the world

managed to shake off from the atrocities in 2016 the Burmese military launched a genocidal campaign against the Rohingya Muslims in Myanmar This was followed by reports of ever growing atrocities against Christian minorities in Nigeria Without waiting too long in 2018 China proceeded with its genocidal campaign against the Uyghur Muslims In 2020 the Tigrayans became the victims of ethnic targeting Five cases of mass atrocities that in the space of just five years all easily meet the legal definition of genocide Again the response that followed each case has been inadequate and unable to make a difference to the targeted communities This legacy does not give much hope for the future The question that this books hopes to address is what needs to change to ensure that we are better equipped to address genocide and prevent the crime in the future
