Problem is the longer they are together the more she begins to see beyond the lord of evil to the troubled man beneath. Now she must decide if he is worthy of the only thing she has left to give Vampire's Desire. He does not trust her. Lucan has one chance to save himself before the darkness he wields consumes him. The vampire would rather damn his soul to Hell than mate his enemy's sister. Fate hasn't left him much choice however because it prophesies Sabin to end the brutal war on humanity. The longer he waits the further into the shadows he slips and the closer they all come to being destroyed. She will betray him. Sabin experiences daily torture ever since her brother locked her in his hellish dungeon. The only thing that keeps her sane is the knowledge there is one vampire destined to save her. Even when Lucan rejects the idea they could ever become mated she knows the fate of the world depends on them being together. He is darkness she is light yet they need each other to survive. Evil is preparing to destroy Sabin and with each passing second the enemy grows stronger. Time is running out and with the Phoenix God missing Sabin cannot fulfill the prophecy.
