

THE ENTREPRENEUR'S GUIDE TO PRODUCTIVITY

A 5-STEP DAY PLANNER

Focus on "output" rather than "activity" or "input".
You can do the task, but measure the results to see what's really important. That way, time is spent on what generates the greatest return.

Ask, "What's the most you can do with the time you have available? What's the most you can do with the resources you have?"

Eight points.

1. Set clear goals. You can't measure what you can't
see. Set clear, measurable goals for what you want to accomplish. That way, you can focus on what's important.
2. Prioritize tasks. Prioritize tasks based on what's most important. That way, you can focus on what's most important.
3. Establish work boundaries. Establish work boundaries so you can focus on what's most important. That way, you can focus on what's most important.

80% TIME & EFFORT
20% RESULTS

STEP 3 FOCUS ON RESULTS.

As an entrepreneur, you're often faced with the reality of uncertainty and change. The entrepreneurial world is often different from the world of corporate or other business. That's because it's more uncertain, more dynamic, and often more unpredictable. That's why it's important to focus on results, and to focus on them.

New business mistakes:
The most common mistake is to focus 80 percent of your energy on what's not important. Instead, focus on what's important. That's because what's important now, will be in the future. That's because what's important now, will be in the future. That's because what's important now, will be in the future.

The Pareto principle, or 80/20 rule, is based on the concept of power law distributions.
It's often used to explain the relationship between the size of the population and the size of the income and resources it generates. That's why it's important to focus on what's most important, and to focus on what's most important. That's why it's important to focus on what's most important, and to focus on what's most important.

It's important to focus on what's most important. That's why it's important to focus on what's most important, and to focus on what's most important.
