Description Tableau Cosmique Jean Gaza:

Nonnus of Panopolis in Context Konstantinos Spanoudakis, 2014-07-16 Nonnus of Panopolis fifth century CE composed two poems once thought to be incompatible the Dionysiaca a mythological long epic with a marked interest in astrology the occult the paradox and not least the beauty of the female body and a pious and sublime Paraphrase of the Gospel of St John Little is known about the man to whom sundry identities have been attached The longer work has been misrepresented as a degenerate poem or as a mythological handbook The Christian poem has been neglected or undervalued Yet Nonnus accomplished an ambitious plan in two parts aiming at representing world history This volume consists mainly of the Proceedings of the First International Conference on Nonnus held in Rethymno Crete in May 2011 With twentyfour essays an international team of specialists place Nonnus firmly in his time s context After an authoritative Introduction by Pierre Chuvin chapters on Nonnus and the literary past the visual arts Late Antique paideia Christianity and his immediate and long range afterlife to modern times offer a wide ranging and innovative insight into the man and his world The volume moves on beyond stereotypes to inaugurate a new era of research for Nonnus and Late Antique poetics on the whole

After the Text Liz James, Oliver Nicholson, Roger Scott, 2021-10-31 After the Text honours the work of renowned historian Margaret Mullett who since the 1970s has transformed the study of Byzantine literature Her work has been influential in demonstrating the strength and variety of Byzantine texts Byzantium is renowned for its achievements in architecture and the visual arts Byzantium is renowned for its achievements in architecture and the visual arts Professor Mullett s perceptive studies produced over more than 40 years have shown that the literature of the Byzantine Empire is of equal beauty and interest ranging as it does from high style poetry and rhetoric in the classical manner through letters to demotic writings such as fables and the lives of saints The collection of essays in this volume draws further attention to the wealth and diversity of Byzantine texts by exploring the Greek literature of Late Antiquity and the Middle Ages in all its variety These studies by going like Professor Mullett herself beyond the texts illustrate the value of Byzantine literature for interpreting Byzantine history and civilisation in all its richness This book is crucial reading for scholars and students of the Byzantine world as well as for those interested in literary studies Chapter 16 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Brill's Companion to the Reception of Homer from Byzantium to the Enlightenment, 2025-12-18 This Companion examines conceptions and uses of Homeric poetry in philosophy literature and scholarship from the sixth to the eighteenth century while also including excursions into the fine arts and music in modern times Its eighteen chapters explore the central place of Homer in Byzantine culture the subsequent revival of Homeric studies in the Italian Renaissance allegorical exegesis and the close connection between poetics and rhetoric inherited from Antiquity the evolution of Homeric scholarship from a humanistic and aesthetic to a more historicist approach

The

Poetics of Greek Ekphrasis Matthew Chaldekas, Irmgard Männlein-Robert, 2025-11-03 This volume examines the literary figure of ekphrasis with a particular focus on its role in an overarching poetic or artistic design. As a literary phenomenon with roots in the earliest Greek poetry ekphrasis has been traditionally defined as Kunstbeschreibung art description. Recent scholarship has challenged this definition and broadened it to extend beyond descriptions of artworks and beyond poetic contexts. Nevertheless ekphrasis retains the basic outline of a sensory especially visual experience translated into words. As such it invites an audience to engage with a real or imagined object and to reflect on the text as object and its artistic construction. The sensory element of ancient ekphrasis allows this literary device to raise questions of perception and cognition as well as materiality spatiality and aesthetics. The papers in this volume engage with a variety of texts and objects which shed new light on the special relationship between ekphrasis and poetry ekphrasis and art. The material covered here ranges from the Hellenistic period where ekphrasis experienced its great efflorescence to Late Antiquity and it will be of interest to literary scholars art historians and archaeologists.

Learning Cities in Late Antiquity Jan R. Stenger, 2018-12-07 Education in the Graeco Roman world was a hallmark of the polis. Yet the complex ways in which pedagogical theory and practice intersected with their local environments has not been much explored in recent scholarship. Learning Cities in Late Antiquity suggests a new explanatory model that helps to understand better how conditions in the cities shaped learning and teaching and how in turn education had an impact on its urban context. Drawing inspiration from the modern idea of learning cities the chapters explore the interplay of teachers learners political leaders communities and institutions in the Mediterranean polis with a focus on the well documented city of Gaza in the sixth century CE. They demonstrate in detail that formal and informal teaching as well as educational thinking not only responded to specifically local needs but also exerted considerable influence on local society. With its interdisciplinary and comparatist approach the volume aims to contextualise ancient education in order to stimulate further research on ancient learning cities. It also highlights the benefits of historical research to theory and practice in modern education.

Lexikon zur byzantinischen Gräzität Erich Trapp, 1994 Since Charles Dufresne Sieur du Cange's pioneering work Lyon 1688 Greek lexicography of the mediaeval period has been widely neglected with the result that a wide gap in the documentation of Greek vocabulary has now opened between late antique and Patristic Greek on the one hand and late Byzantine vernacular Greek on the other. The Lexikon zur byzantinischen Gräzität LBG attempts to fill this lacuna by gathering systematically new words and meanings from texts from the 9th to 12th centuries supplemented by material from the earlier and later centuries. Besides literary texts documents as well as selected legal and scientific sources have been included. The Lexicon will serve as a working instrument not only for Byzantinists but also for classicists mediaevalists theologians linguists etc. It will appear in eight fascicles of about 200 pages each. Fasc 1-4 and 5-8 will form one volume. Subscribers will receive the cover for vol I together with fasc 4 the cover for vol II and the definitive list of abbreviations together with fasc 8.
