Monster Culture in the 21st Century Marina Levina, Diem-My T. Bui, 2013-05-23 In the past decade our rapidly changing world faced terrorism global epidemics economic and social strife new communication technologies immigration and climate change to name a few These fears and tensions reflect an evermore interconnected global environment where increased mobility of people technologies and disease have produced great social political and economical uncertainty The essays in this collection examine how monstrosity has been used to manage these rising fears and tensions Analyzing popular films and televisions shows such as True Blood Twilight Paranormal Activity District 9 Battlestar Galactica and Avatar it argues that monstrous narratives of the past decade have become omnipresent specifically because they represent collective social anxieties over resisting and embracing change in the 21st century The first comprehensive text that uses monstrosity not just as a metaphor for change but rather a necessary condition through which change is lived and experienced in the 21st century this approach introduces a different perspective toward the study of monstrosity in culture The Writer's Market, 2004

A guide for the freelance writer listing pertinent information about publications and editors Medial Bodies between Fiction and Faction Denisa Butnaru, 2020-06-03 In the past decades developments in the fields of medicine new media and biotechnologies challenged many representations and practices questioning the understanding of our corporeal limits Using concrete examples from literary fiction media studies philosophy performance arts and social sciences this collection underlines how bodily models and transformations thought until recently to be only fictional products have become a part of our reality The essays provide a spectrum of perspectives on how the body emerges as a transitional environment between fictional and factual elements a process understood as faction Internet Lesbian and Gay Television Series, 1996-2014 Vincent Terrace, 2015-05-23 Created around the world and available only on the Web internet television series are independently produced mostly low budget shows that often feature talented but unknown performers Typically financed through crowd funding they are filmed with borrowed equipment and volunteer casts and crews and viewers find them
