Depression A Public Feeling:

Depression Ann Cvetkovich, 2012-11-05 Ann Cvetkovich combines memoir and cultural critique in search of ways of writing about depression as a public cultural and political phenomenon rather than as a personal medical pathology

Public Spheres of Resonance Anne Fleig, Christian von Scheve, 2019-10-08 To understand the profound changes in the modes of public political debate over the past decade this volume develops a new conception of public spheres as spaces of resonance emerging from the power of language to affect and to ascribe and instill collective emotion Political discourse is no longer confined to traditional media but increasingly takes place in fragmented and digital public spheres At the same time the modes of political engagement have changed discourse is said to increasingly rely on strategies of emotionalization and to be deeply affective at its core This book meticulously shows how public spheres are rooted in the emotional bodily and affective dimensions of language and how language in its capacity to affect and to be affected produces those dynamics of affective resonance that characterize contemporary forms of political debate It brings together scholars from the humanities and social sciences and focuses on two fields of inquiry public politics and media in Part I and language and artistic inquiry in Part II The thirteen chapters provide a balanced composition of theoretical and methodological considerations focusing on highly illustrative case studies and on different artistic practices The volume is an indispensable source for researchers and postgraduate students in cultural studies literary studies sociology and political science It likewise appeals to practitioners seeking to develop an in depth understanding of affect in contemporary political debate The Body Lisa

Blackman, 2021-06-21 Thoroughly updated and revised throughout with brand new chapters on affective bodies indeterminate bodies assemblaged bodies and a new conclusion and featuring essay and classroom questions for classroom use The Body Key Concepts Second Edition presents a concise and up to date introduction to and analysis of the complex and influential debates around the body in contemporary culture Lisa Blackman outlines and illuminates those debates which have made the body central to current interdisciplinary thinking across the arts humanities and sciences Since body studies hit the mainstream it has grown in new regions including China and moved in new directions to question what counts as a body and what it means to have and be a body in different contexts milieu and settings Lisa Blackman guides the reader through socio cultural questions around representation performance class race gender disability and sexuality to examine how current thinking about the body has developed and been transformed Blackman engages with classic anthropological scholarship from Nancy Scheper Hughes and Margaret Lock revisits black feminist writings from the 1980s as well as engaging with recent debates thought and theorists who are inventing new concepts methods and ways of apprehending embodiment which challenge binary and dualistic categories It provides an overview of the proliferation of body studies into other disciplines including media and cultural studies philosophy gender studies and anthropology as well as mapping the future of body studies at the intersections of body and affect studies Public Policy, 1902 Manufacturing Happy

Citizens Edgar Cabanas, Eva Illouz, 2019-07-26 The imperative of happiness dictates the conduct and direction of our lives There is no escape from the tyranny of positivity But is happiness the supreme good that all of us should pursue So says a new breed of so called happiness experts with positive psychologists happiness economists and self development gurus at the forefront With the support of influential institutions and multinational corporations these self proclaimed experts now tell us what governmental policies to apply what educational interventions to make and what changes we must undertake in order to lead more successful more meaningful and healthier lives With a healthy scepticism this book documents the powerful social impact of the science and industry of happiness arguing that the neoliberal alliance between psychologists economists and self development gurus has given rise to a new and oppressive form of government and control in which happiness has been woven into the very fabric of power

Financial and Economical Annual of Japan, 1910 Bankers' Magazine, Journal of the Money Market and Commercial Digest, 1910 Re/Imagining Depression Julie Hollenbach, Robin Alex McDonald, 2021-09-21 What is depression An imagined sun bright and black at the same time A noonday demon In literature poetry comics visual art and film we witness new conceptualizations of depression come into being Unburdened by diagnostic criteria and pharmaceutical politics these media employ imagery narrative symbolism and metaphor to forge imaginative exploratory and innovative representations of a range of experiences that might get called depression Texts such as Julia Kristeva's Black Sun Depression and Melancholia 1989 Andrew Solomon's The Noonday Demon 2000 Allie Brosh's cartoons Adventures in Depression 2011 and Depression Part Two 2013 and Lars von Trier's film Melancholia 2011 each offer portraits of depression that deviate from or altogether reject the dominant language of depression that has been articulated by and within psychiatry Most recently Ann Cvetkovich's Depression A Public Feeling 2012 has answered the author's own call for a multiplication of discourses on depression by positing crafting as one possible method of working through depression as impasse Inspired by Cvetkovich's efforts to re shape the depressive experience itself and the critical ways in which we communicate this experience to others Re Imagining Depression Creative Approaches to Feeling Bad harnesses critical theory gender studies critical race theory affect theory visual art performance film television poetry literature comics and other media to generate new paradigms for thinking about the depressive experience Through a combination of academic essays prose poetry and interviews this anthology aims to destabilize the idea of the mental health expert to instead demonstrate the diversity of affects embodiments rituals and behaviors that are often collapsed under the singular rubric of depression

Reading with Feeling Fiona C. Black, Jennifer L. Koosed, 2019-11-20 Essays with a methodological and metacritical focus The psychological approach known as affect theory focuses on bodily feelings depression happiness disgust love and can illuminate both texts and their interpretations In this collection of essays scholars break new ground in biblical interpretation by deploying a range of affect theoretical approaches in their interpretations of texts Contributors direct their attention to the political social and cultural formation of emotion and other precognitive forces as a corrective to more traditional historical critical methods and postmodern approaches The inclusion of response essays results in a rich transdisciplinary dialog with for example history classics and philosophy Fiona C Black Amy C Cottrill Rhiannon Graybill Jennifer L Koosed Joseph Marchal Robert Seesengood Ken Stone and Jay Twomey engage a range of texts from biblical to prayers to graphic novels Erin Runions and Stephen D Moore s responses push the conversation in new fruitful directions Features An overview of the development of affect theory and how it has been used to interpret biblical texts Examples of how to apply affect theory to biblical exegesis Interdisciplinary studies that engage history literature classics animal studies liturgical studies philosophy and sociology

Concrete Dreams Nicholas D'Avella,2019-11-15 In Concrete Dreams Nicholas D Avella examines the changing social and economic lives of buildings in the context of a construction boom following Argentina s political and economic crisis of 2001 D Avella tells the stories of small scale investors who turned to real estate as an alternative to a financial system they no longer trusted of architects who struggled to maintain artistic values and political commitments in the face of the ongoing commodification of their work and of residents turned activists who worked to protect their neighborhoods and city from being overtaken by new development Such forms of everyday engagement with buildings he argues produce divergent forms of value that persist in tension with hegemonic forms of value In the dreams attached to built environments and the material forms in which those dreams are articulated from charts and graphs to architectural drawings urban planning codes and tango lyrics D Avella finds a blueprint for building livable futures in which people can survive alongside and even push back against the hegemony of capitalism UCLA Journal of International Law and Foreign Affairs ,2013 The Public Treatment of Pauperism John Huston Finley,1894 Public Opinion ,1889 Public ,1878 The Public ,1874
