Desert Crossing A Different Perspective:

Desert Crossing: A Different Perspective B.G. Thomas, 2011-02-09 A companion piece to Desert Crossing After hitching a ride with Callum across the desert Dan is finding it more difficult than he'd imagined it would be to send the young man on his way When Callum's mother asks him to visit for her birthday she unwittingly comes to his rescue Callum is a broken and unhappy man emotionally abused by his lover to the point of feeling worthless alone and without hope But during his trip while passing through the Salt Lake Desert Callum picks up a hitchhiker named Danny who shows him that life is full of wonder and blessings He's on the verge of believing in himself again but can he really make a new life for himself by jumping from the arms of one man into another's A Bittersweet Dreams title It's an unfortunate truth love doesn't always conquer all Regardless of its strength sometimes fate intervenes tragedy strikes or forces conspire against it These stories of romance do not offer a traditional happy ending but the strong and enduring love will still touch your heart and maybe move you to tears

Landscape and Culture - Cross-linguistic Perspectives Helen Bromhead, 2018-09-07 The relationship between landscape and culture seen through language is an exciting and increasingly explored area This ground breaking book contributes to the linguistic examination of both cross cultural variation and unifying elements in geographical categorization The study focuses on the contrastive lexical semantics of certain landscape words in a number of languages The aim is to show how geographical vocabulary sheds light on the culturally and historically shaped ways people see and think about the land around them Notably the study presents landscape concepts as anchored in a human centred perspective based on our cognition vision and experience in places The Natural Semantic Metalanguage NSM approach allows an analysis of meaning which is both fine grained and transparent The book is aimed first of all at scholars and students of linguistics Yet it will also be of interest to researchers in geography environmental studies anthropology cultural studies Australian Studies and Australian Aboriginal Studies because of the book's cultural take New Outlook, 1911 Toward a New Art of Border

Crossing Ananta Kumar Giri, Arnab Roy Chowdhury, David Blake Willis, 2024-11-05 Boundaries borders and margins are related concepts and realities and each of these can be conceptualized and organized in closed or open ways with degrees of closure or openness The logics of stasis and closure as well as cults of exclusivist and exclusionary sovereignty are reflected and embodied in the closed xenophobic conceptualization and organization of boundaries borders and margins But an open conceptualization of the borderlands where mixing and hybridity take place at a rapid even dizzying pace gives rise to Creolization at the threshold of sovereignties which can also be imagined At present our border zones are spaces of anxiety ridden security arrangements violence and death The existing politics of boundary maintenance is wedded to a cult of sovereignty at various levels which produces bare lives bodies and lands We need the new art of border crossing to be defined by the notion of camaraderie and shared sovereignties and non sovereignties Border zones can also be zones of meetings communication transcendence and festive celebration of the limits of our identities Thus we need a new art and politics of boundary transmutation transformation and transcendence in the broadest possible sense that entails the production of spatial scalar somatic cognitive affective and spiritual transitions Outlook and Independent ,1901
