

THEORY OF THE ECONOMIC SYSTEM

Because of the nature of the data, it is not possible to draw any conclusions about the effect of the intervention on the outcome.

Mr. Shaojun Liu, Vice Chairman of the Chinese Association of International Trade, has a 20-year history in the international trade industry.

These statements will require government and non-government organizations to strengthen their institutional functioning through adaptive capacity, accountability and the ability to learn. In this article, the potentialities and challenges of these new and more effective governance mechanisms are explored, perspectives from policy-makers and practitioners are outlined, and a framework for adaptive governance is proposed, combining the two approaches. This article concludes with some recommendations for further research.
