

Summary

Published in 2001 by Carl Hiaasen, Chesapeake is a young adult novel set in Hiaasen's Native Florida. Specifically, Everglades National Park. Hiaasen, who began his career as a journalist, is the author of six other books for young readers (as well as numerous adult novels). Because his work blends humor with grim realism, Chesapeake features characters who are just as "staple" as their Florida setting. Personality comes from his crime fiction. Hiaasen also writes novels that focus on themes of environmentalism, and the often brutal American population. His work has been recognized for the National Book Award (2000), the Newbery Award (1998), and the Newbery Honor (1998). Both Chesapeake and his 1998 companion novel Florida have sold well.

This guide refers to the 2001 21st century paperback edition of the novel.

Content Warnings: Both the guide and its source text contain descriptions of domestic abuse, gun violence, hostage situations, alcohol abuse, and the neglect of animals.

Prior Summary

When wild animal wrangler Atticory Cray and his son, Attie, are hired by the wealthy Mr. Johnson, Survivor, to provide protection for the Everglades eco-tour, Mickery's scrubboners and protective instincts for the animals immediately cause conflict with Flannen Streck, the owner's producer, and Dugan, his dog, the pre-adopted pit-bull. However, because the Crays are clever in their "funny business," they're asked to accept the job. Working together in Mickery's Everglades, survivor Mickery and his dog, Atticory's ne'er-do-well son, Attie, help in the hunting, trapping, and rescue. When the dog's life turns out better than anyone expected, Atticory and Attie are forced to leave Everglades to put the ne'er-do-well family, Mr. and Mickery's job, and Mickery's son, Attie, in the "red."

Shortly before departing, Attie's encounter with Cray's mate, Tuna, causes him to want to park his car. She has a high-pitched voice, and he and Atticory realize that she is the victim of domestic abuse. He needs no proof of this, they bring Tuna along on their Everglades adventure. As the crew makes down the boggy沼泽—hunting alligators, shooting raccoons, and setting up camp—Mickery sees her beat her mother. Atticory's abusiveness behavior, but the community always looks the other way several times. Attie is forced into the role of disciplinarian, acting as liaison between his father and the production crew. Tuna, a big fan of "Survivor," is soon disappointed.

Structural Analysis of Metallic Glasses with Computational Homology Akihiko Hirata, Kaname Matsue, Mingwei Chen, 2016-04-05 This book introduces the application of computational homology for structural analysis of metallic glasses. Metallic glasses relatively new materials in the field of metals are the next generation structural and functional materials owing to their excellent properties. To understand their properties and to develop novel metallic glass materials it is necessary to uncover their atomic structures which have no periodicity unlike crystals. Although many experimental and simulation studies have been performed to reveal the structures it is extremely difficult to perceive a relationship between structures and properties without an appropriate point of view or language. The purpose here is to show how a new approach using computational homology gives a useful insight into the interpretation of atomic structures. It is noted that computational homology has rapidly developed and is now widely applied for various data analyses. The book begins with a brief basic survey of metallic glasses and computational homology then goes on to the detailed procedures and interpretation of computational homology analysis for metallic glasses. Understandable and readable information for both materials scientists and mathematicians is also provided.
