Christian Thought Charles F. Deems, 2018-03-11 Excerpt from Christian Thought Lectures and Papers on Philosophy Christian Evidence Biblical Elucidation State some think too close in the reign of Constantine and this has been continued in European countries down to the present day when however it is keenly contested whether the State should continue to offer an endowment to the Church and whether the Church should accept such an endowment if offered In the early ages of the United States Republic there were endowments provided for the Church or rather for some particular Church say the Church of England but for the past century and more the States have been freeing themselves from all such entanglements Still there are government acts which seem to imply which I believe do really imply an alliance between Church and State as for example the prayers offered in the Senate and House of Representatives and in the opening of courts of justice in the appointment of chaplains in the army and navy and in prisons in the laws enacted for the preservation of the Sabbath and above all in the Bible being read in our national schools and religion being taught in our State colleges In these and in some other things there is an alliance between Church and State for good ends which seem to me legitimate and highly commendable Some indeed argue that these acts are all in the interest of civil law for the protection of life and property but the people in enacting and practising them mean them to be religious as well There are signs of a contest arising in which it will be insisted that all that is religious in these acts be handed over to the Churches which will have difficulties not impossibilities however in providing teachers and chaplains and in protecting the Sabbath About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Christian Thought (Classic Reprint) Charles F. Deems, 2017-06-11 Excerpt from Christian Thought Weak men on both sides have done much harm the weak religionists by assuming and the weak scientists by claiming for guesses and hypotheses the high character and full value of real truth The guesses of both have collided in the air and a real battle seemed impending but it was only guesses which exploded bubbles not bombs and it is never to be forgotten that a professor of religion has just as much right to guess as a professor of science and the latter no more right nor skill than the former although he has had more practice About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Christian Thought to the Reformation \(Classic Reprint\) Herbert B. Workman, 2015-06-29 Excerpt from Christian Thought to the Reformation Man has no deeper or wider interest than theology none deeper for however much he may change he never loses his love of the many question it covers and none wider for under whatever law he may live he never escapes from its spacious shade nor does he never find that it speaks to him in vain or uses a voice that fails to reach him Once the present writer was talking with a friend who has equal fame as a statesman and a man of letters and he said Every day I live Politics which are affairs of Man and Time interest me less while Theology which is an affair to God and Eternity interests me more As with him so with many though the many feel that their interest is in theology and not in dogma Dogma they know is but a series of resolutions framed by a council or parliament which they do not respect any the more because the parliament was composed of ecclesiastically minded persons while the theology which so interests them is a discourse touching God though the Being so named is the God man Conceived as not only related to himself and his world but also as rising ever higher with the notions of the self and the world About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works From Christian Thought \(Classic Reprint\) Warren Holden, 2018-01-30 Excerpt from From Christian Thought Thus is met the objection that what is called revelation is in large part made up of trivial and commonplace things About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art

The Continuity of Christian Thought Alexander V. G. Allen, 2017-11-16 Excerpt from The Continuity of Christian Thought A Study of Modern Theology in the Light of Its History This treatise owes its shape to the circumstance of its having been written as a course of lectures which were delivered in Philadelphia on the foundation of the late John Bohlen The lectures being six in number required what may seem a somewhat artificial division of the subject matter But the grouping of topics which I was in consequence constrained to make will not I think be found an unnatural one The lectures have been as carefully revised as my engagements would allow they are published substantially as they were spoken with the exception of several portions omitted in the delivery for the sake of brevity About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of

Christ in Christian Thought

Edward Grubb,2018-02-15 Excerpt from Christ in Christian Thought Notes on the Development of the Doctrine of Christ s Person The following chapters like those contained in the author s former volume Notes on the Life and Teaching of Jesus appeared originally as monthly instalments of Study Notes in the pages of The British Friend of which he was Editor The demand for the former volume gives ground for hoping that a good many thoughtful enquirers may welcome this further study of the beliefs in regard to the Person of Christ which were arrived at by early and later Christians The issue of the book has been delayed for some years owing to war conditions In the author s view the doctrine of the Divinity of Christ and the further doctrine of the Trinity which it was found to involve are not truths supernaturally communicated to men concerning matters that transcend human experience but are in the true sense of the term theories that is ideas reached in the legitimate endeavour to explain and rationalise facts of actual experience outward and inward These doctrines were the work of human reason more or less enlightened by the Spirit of God reflecting on the facts of what Jesus was and what He had done for the inner lives of men They were therefore in the first instance the expression not of abstract but of concrete truth But when Christianity spread among the Gentiles the Greek intellect which loved abstractions largely lost the basis of vivid experience in which the process had begun and this is why to us the Christian speculation of the creed building ages seems so often an arid waste The greatest service which the modern Critical method has rendered to theology is that it has helped to restore the outlines of the concrete Personality of Jesus and with it the wonder and the awe which led His followers to question who and what He was And any Christology that is to satisfy the modern mind will necessarily have to make terms with Science both physical and historical Such are the dominant thoughts that have guided these studies About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature George Thomas Kurian,James D. Smith III,2010-04-16 The written word is one of the defining elements of Christian experience As vigorous in the 1st century as it is in the 21st Christian literature has had a significant function in history and teachers and students need to be reminded of this powerful literary legacy Covering

2 000 years The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature is the first encyclopedia devoted to Christian writers and books In addition to an overview of the Christian literature this two volume set also includes 40 essays on the principal genres of Christian literature and more than 400 bio bibliographical essays describing the principal writers and their works These essays examine the evolution of Christian thought as reflected in the literature of every age The companion volume also features bibliographies an index a timeline of Christian Literature and a list of the greatest Christian authors The encyclopedia will appeal not only to scholars and Christian evangelicals but students and teachers in seminaries and theological schools as well as to the growing body of Christian readers and bibliophiles Race and Religion Thomas Allin,2018-03-18 Excerpt from Race and Religion Hellenistic Theology Its Place in Christian Thought IT is the special good fortune of Hellenism that it appeals at once to the Liberal and to the Conservative to the latter because it is the most ancient and venerable statement of Christian teaching which we possess to the former because of its remarkable anticipation of much that seems modern in the religious thought of to day About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Present-Day Problems of Christian Thought (Classic Reprint) Randolph H. McKim,2018-01-31 Excerpt from Present Day Problems of Christian Thought Attempts have been made by a Certain class of writers to use the religion of Buddha as a means of weakening the force of the claim which Jesus of Nazareth makes for Himself and for the religion of which He is the founder and the head The argument may be stated thus Jesus claims to be the Light of the World and to have established a religion which is the absolute religion before which all other religions must give way because it is true and they are false it is super naturally revealed they are of purely natural origin But the religion of Buddha presents so many resemblances and parallels to the religion of Christ in its ethical code in its spirit and in the life of its founder that the exclusive claims of the latter cannot be maintained and every open minded man must see that both of these great religions are divine revelations or neither is But it may be shown in answer to this that the alleged points of resemblance between the two religions when closely scrutinized are in many cases unreal in many others greatly exaggerated and that the residuum of real likeness is totally insufficient to outweigh the contrasts which are radical fundamental About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Christian Thought on Life Henry Giles, 2015-07-09

Excerpt from Christian Thought on Life In a Series of Discourses These Discourses were not written in pastoral relations or for pastoral purposes The general intention which governed in the composition of the greater number was to gather into compact form fragments of moral experience and to give some record and some order to desultory studies of man's interior life The author therefore not pressed by occasions which compel brevity followed as he was moved the promptings of his feelings and his theme Thus much the author ventures to advance as an apology for their length beyond the measure commonly allowed to sermons About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that
