Lee, 2014-02-28 George Kalantzis and Gregory W Lee edit twelve essays that explore the topic of Christian political witness originally presented at the 2013 Wheaton Theology Conference Contributors include Stanley Hauerwas Mark Noll William Cavanaugh Peter Leithart and Scot McKnight

Jesus and the Powers N. T. Wright, Michael F. Bird, 2024-03-26 An urgent call for Christians everywhere to explore the nature of the kingdom amid the political upheaval of our day Should Christians be politically withdrawn avoiding participation in politics to maintain their prophetic voice and to keep from being used as political pawns Or should Christians be actively involved seeking to utilize political systems to control the levers of power In Jesus and the Powers N T Wright and Michael F Bird call Christians everywhere to discern the nature of Christian witness in fractured political environments In an age of ascending autocracies in a time of fear and fragmentation amid carnage and crises Jesus is king and Jesus s kingdom remains the object of the church s witness and work Part political theology part biblical overview and part church history this book argues that building for Jesus s kingdom requires confronting empire in all its forms This approach should orient Christians toward a form of political engagement that contributes to free democratic societies and vigorously opposes political schemes based on autocracy and nationalism Throughout Wright and Bird reflect on the relevance of this kingdom oriented approach to current events including the Russian Ukraine conflict the China Taiwan tension political turmoil in the USA UK and Australia and the problem of Christian nationalism

Christianity and Contemporary Politics Luke Bretherton, 2011-09-13 Congratulations to Luke Bretherton on winning the 2013 Michael Ramsey Prize for Theological Writing for Christianity and Contemporary Politics Relations between religious and political spheres continue to stir passionate debates on both sides of the Atlantic Through a combination of theological reflection and empirical case studies Bretherton succeeds in offering timely and invaluable insights into these crucial issues facing 21st century societies Explores the relationship between Christianity and contemporary politics through case studies of faith based organizations Christian political activism and welfare provision in the West these case studies assess initiatives including community organizing fair trade and the sanctuary movement Offers an insightful informative account of how Christians can engage politically in a multi faith liberal democracy Integrates debates in political theology with inter disciplinary analysis of policy and practice regarding religious social political and economic engagement in the USA UK and continental Europe Reveals how Christians can help prevent the subversion of the church and even of politics itself by legal bureaucratic and market mechanisms rather than advocating withdrawal or assimilation Engages with the intricacies of contemporary politics whilst integrating systematic and historical theological reflection on political and economic life

Scandalous Witness Lee C. Camp, 2020-03-10 Christian identity is in moral and political crisis scandalized by the many ways in which it has been coopted and misrepresented Addressing this painful reality Lee Camp writes that Christianity in America has been made into a bad public joke because of our failure to rightly understand what Christianity is From this provocative claim Camp's manifesto makes the convincing case that a renewed Christian politic is more essential than ever one that is neither left nor right nor religious but a prophetic way of life modeled after Jesus of Nazareth Camp's robust vision exposes modern parodies of faith the American concept of Christian values for one and challenges Christians to rethink who they are and how they participate in the modern world Authentic gospel truth is a scandal to the American myth he argues and we are called to be scandalous witnesses

Christian Political Witness of the Church of the Poor Gerardo Cristian Viviers, 1984

Political Gospel Patrick Schreiner, 2022-10-18 Evangelical Christian Publishers Association Top Shelf Book Cover Awards for Design Excellence Non fiction category Winner Christians are constantly being accused of being too political or not political enough Often the accusations are fair Christians tend to get stuck in one of two political ditches we either privatize our faith or make it partisan We think religion and politics should be separate and never intermingle or we align so tightly with a political party that we conflate the gospel with a human agenda In Political Gospel Patrick Schreiner argues Christianity not only has political implications but is itself a politic The gospel at its very core is political Jesus declared Himself to be King But He does not allow you to put Him in your political box In a supercharged political climate Political Gospel explores what it means for Christians to have a biblical public witness by looking to Scripture the early church and today Should we submit to governing authorities or subvert them Are we to view them as agents of the dark forces or entities that promote order In these pages we'll see that Christians live in a paradox and we'll see how to follow Christ our King right into the political craziness of our day

Introduction to Political Science Fred Van Geest, 2017-07-04 Christians are called to be informed about political science as they seek to be ambassadors for Christ in a diverse society In this introductory textbook Fred Van Geest presents a balanced Christian perspective on political science providing a nonpartisan guide to the key concepts institutions and policies that shape politics today

Reading Scripture as a Political Act Matthew A. Tapie, Daniel Wade McClain, 2015-11-01 Although scholars increasingly understand Scripture to contain political dimensions and implications the interpretation of Scripture is often marginalized in most scholarly discussions of political theology Reading Scripture as a Political Act takes a step toward remedying this situation by exploring some of the ways the church has read Scripture politically In particular this volume examines the political character of premodern and modern theologians readings of Scripture with attention to how their readings relate to or address political challenges in their particular social and historical settings The essays attempt to illuminate the ways that the theological interpretation of Scripture shaped the theopolitical imaginations of Augustine Basil of Caesarea Bonaventure Thomas Aquinas Bartolome de las Casas John Wesley Karl Barth Henri de Lubac and John Howard Yoder among others Several essays in the volume also take constructive steps and suggest how these models of reading Scripture can inform the contemporary task of reading Scripture in political contexts The volume covers the earliest Christian centuries to the late modern era and considers carefully the close coordination between Scripture theology and social and political concerns As a whole the collection provides a robust survey of Christian theopolitical interpretation of the Bible

Christian political witness of the church of the poor Gerardo C. Viviers, 1986

To Change the World James Davison Hunter, 2010-04-14 Christians from every tradition have long desired to change the world for the better a desire with roots in biblical and theological reasoning Unquestionably Christians today are no less well intentioned and no less motivated to do good than in times past But even taking their aspirations and intentions at face value argues James Hunter the implicit social theory that guides so much of their efforts is deeply flawed In To Change the World he offers three essays connected and sequential but distinct arguing that Christians should finally give up the goal of trying to change the world and the triumphalist attitude that tends to go along with that idea

The Cambridge Companion to Christian Political Theology Craig Hovey, Elizabeth Phillips, 2015-11-20 This volume explores contemporary Christian political theology discussing its traditional sources its emergence as a discipline and its key issues

The Politics of Witness Allan R Bevere, 2011-06-14 Can a church that is compromised through dependence on temporal political power speak with a powerful prophetic voice in the world As the body of Christ the church has a prophetic role in the world Prophets have always spoken clearly to people in power They have been willing to challenge the decisions made by people who thought they were not accountable to anyone Sometimes the prophets were respected sometimes persecuted but they were never ignored or regarded as irrelevant So why is it that the church today cannot speak truth effectively to power In The Politics of Witness Dr Allan R Bevere asks these questions and proposes an answer The church has come to depend too much on temporal power and has thus forgotten its divine authority In finding this answer he goes back to the founding of the church and how it first became dependent on the state He examines those who have followed mostly building a political theory that takes the responsibility of ministry from the church and gives it to the state You ll find some names in this that might surprise you Any discussion of Christianity and the state will involve Emperor Constantine but what about his modern lieutenants such as Locke Jefferson Franklin and others While the theology applies to the church in any country Dr Bevere takes a particular look at the peculiarly American view that the United States of America is somehow God s chosen people a nation of destiny in accomplishing the gospel mission This book balances brevity with a broad intellectual and historical reach You will be taken from the founding and foundation structure of Christian theology today to a proposal for how we as the Church can reclaim our prophetic witness In the current political atmosphere every Christian needs to read this book The Hebrew

Christian Witness ,1872 Christian Ideas in Political History Charles Edward Osborne,1929 A historical study of the various influences of Christian thought in the western political and social landscape from the pre mediaeval period to the modern state with chapters on Mystical and Social Sects Geneva s Prophet and Philosopher The Romantic and the Christian Social Movements etc The author observes that he has used the word political in the title in a wider sense than is customary It includes those interests in life which have to do with the communal and social side of human existence Christian Political Activism at the Crossroads William R. Stevenson,1994 This volume illumines the discussion being carried on between the religious right with its concern for moral responsibility in politics and the issue oriented activists who are concerned with how Christians in America address human rights and hunger issues By bringing together both Christian scholars and activists from nearly all points of the political continuum this book offers a rare glimpse into the reality of Christian diversity on the political task The media often suggests a monist interpretation of Christian politics This book shows both the vitality and plurality of Christian politics in America The book covers the historical background activist perspectives organizational structures and participant characteristics with essays by Frank Roberts David O Brien Ruth Tucker James Reichley Delton Franz Betty Coats Lucille Taylor Bruce Buursma Robert Zwier Allen Hertzke James Guth Lyman Kellstedt Corwin Smidt Stephen Monsma and concludes with a suggestion of a new direction by James Skillen of the Association for Public Justice Evangelism and Politics John C. Barrett,2020-02-20 In a fallen world politics will be a brutal at times violent sport Grandstanding demonizing misleading and lying are the native language of political debate Violence is historically how political conflicts are ultimately resolved This fact raises important questions about our faith Should Christians participate in politics and government If so how should we participate Evangelism Politics argues that Christians should participate in politics and government but their ultimate goal in doing so is evangelism not political change The way Christians participate in politics is therefore generally more important than the specific policies they advocate for In short Christian participation in politics should be marked by the fruit of the spirit At the same time Christians should not be naive in thinking godly engagement in politics guarantees political success Ungodly tactics are effective and Christians will be at a political disadvantage when they refuse to use such methods Nevertheless Christians should refuse to use them because they see God not the government as their ultimate protector and provider and godly engagement in politics as a way of providing an evangelistic witness to society that fulfills the Great Commission

Christian Witness to Political Power and Authority, 1981 The Future of Faith in American Politics David P. Gushee, 2008 David Gushee argues convincingly that there is in U S politics an evangelical center of voters who do not identify with the politics and religion of either the right or the left Although evangelical Christians are portrayed by the media as conservatives Gushee claims that the evangelical movement includes nearly even numbers of voters on the right in the center and on the left of the political spectrum He provides portraits of the major figures in each of the three camps outlines the core convictions of the adherents and analyzes the strengths and weaknesses of each group s positions He suggests that the evangelical center is poised for growth this book could be its manifesto

Christ and the Common Life Luke Bretherton, 2019-05-07 In Christ and the Common Life Luke Bretherton provides an introduction to historical and contemporary theological reflection on politics and opens up a compelling vision for a Christian commitment to democracy In dialogue with Scripture and various traditions Bretherton examines the dynamic relationship between who we are in relation to God and who we are as moral and political animals He addresses fundamental political questions about poverty and injustice forming a common life with strangers and handling power constructively And through his analysis of debates concerning among other things race class economics the environment and interfaith relations he develops an innovative political theology of democracy as a way through which Christians can speak and act faithfully within our current context Read as a whole or as stand alone chapters the book guides readers through the political landscape and identifies the primary vocabulary ideas and schools of thought that shape Christian reflection on politics in the West Ideal for the classroom Christ and the Common Life equips students to understand politics and its positive and negative role in fostering neighbor love
