25 IMPORTANT QUESTIONS ABOUT GOD, BIBLE, AND LIFE JENUS JUNIMEN, 2025-02-11 Many Christians still do not understand the concept of God they think that just by being a Christian they are guaranteed salvation and will go to Heaven Because of this thinking they feel free to sin and live in hypocrisy Moreover many Christians go to church but do not understand who God is Why should they worship God Is the God of Christians the same as the gods of other religions Why should they go to church Additionally there are many dilemmas in life especially those related to Christian Ethics such as Is smoking a sin Is drinking alcohol allowed And many more questions that are difficult to answer This book presents answers from a biblical perspective so that ordinary Christians can easily understand the truth For young people this book is a must have and an important resource May this book be a blessing to many people Soli Deo Gloria The Asianization of

Christianity Jonathan D. James, 2024-11-05 Christianity has long been associated with the West often creating a disjunction affecting the understanding of the essence of the gospel The Asianization of Christianity is a clarion call by Asian Christian leaders for the gospel to be indigenized by encouraging practitioners to seriously engage with both the Bible and the cultures of Asia The book demonstrates that both the theology and the presentation of the gospel need to be framed according to the mindset of the respective Asian cultures so that the message of the Bible can be understood and accepted Case studies on evangelism church and training models from several Asian nations are explored Core issues such as culture communication and contextualization underpin the practical cases to give depth and clarity for the effective communication of the gospel

Urban Ecclesiology Pascal D. Bazzell, 2015-05-21 Pascal D Bazzell brings the marginal ecclesiology of a Filipino ecclesial community facing homelessness FECH into contemporary ecclesiological conversation in order to deepen the ecumenical understanding of today's ecclesial reality He contributes relevant data to support a theory of an ecclesial oriented paradigm that fosters ecclesial communities within homeless populations There is an extensive dialogue occurring between ecclesiologies church planting theories or urban missions and the urban poor Yet the situation with the homeless population is almost entirely overlooked The majority of urban mission textbooks do not acknowledge an ecclesial oriented state of being and suggest that the street level environment is a place where no discipleship can occur and no church should exist By presenting the FECH's case study Bazzell emphasizes that it is possible to live on the streets and to grow in the faith of God as an ecclesial community To be able to describe the FECH's ecclesial narrative Bazzell develops a local ecclesiological methodology that aims to bridge the gap between more traditional systematic and theoretical ideal ecclesiology and practical oriented ecclesiology e.g. congregational studies in order to hold together theological and social understandings of the church in its local reality He articulates a theological framework for the FECH to reflect on who they are the essence of identity studies who they are in relationship to God the essence of theological studies and what that means for believers in that community as they relate to God and to each other in ways that are true to who they are and to who God intends them to be the essence of ecclesial studies The research provides a seldom heard empirical tour into the FECH s social world and communal identity The theological findings from the FECH s hermeneutical work on the Gospel of Mark reveal an understanding of church being developed as gathering around Jesus that creates a space for God s presence to be embodied in their ordinary relationships and activities and to invite others to participate in that gathering Moreover it addresses ecclesial issues of the supernatural world honor shame values and further develop the neglected image of the familia Dei in classical ecclesiology that encapsulates well the FECH s nature mission and place

The Law of Freedom Daniel L. Rentfro Jr.,2019-10-29 The Law of Freedom Justice and Mercy in the Practice of Law examines the legal and theological roots of the concept of equity and the implications that the diminishment of equity as a legal concept has for the moral dilemmas faced by the practicing lawyer Meditating on the book of Micah the book argues that the Christian duty asks for both strict justice and gracious mercy with the prophet s third value humility essential for both the individual lawyer and the legal system as a whole to balance strict justice and mercy

Relationship Restored Nick S. Smartt,2025-12-11 In a culture which seems increasingly polarized shouldn t the church look different A conservative evangelical movement is possible But it will only happen if the church unifies on the fundamentals of the faith while allowing freedom of conscience on non fundamental issues Conservative evangelical churches grounded in the gospel of grace ought to form a unified front against her enemy forces instead of quarreling with each other over reasonable assessments about the ordinances of the church

The Meaning of Salvation Charles Ewing Brown,2008-01-01 God's Word Alone---The Authority of Scripture Matthew Barrett,2016-09-20 Scholar and pastor Matthew Barrett retraces the historical and biblical roots of the doctrine that Scripture alone is the final and decisive authority for God s people God s Word Alone is a decisive defense of the Bible as the inspired and inerrant Word of God Revitalizing one of the five great declarations of the Reformation sola Scriptura Barrett Analyzes what the idea of sola Scriptura is and what it entails clarifying why the doctrine is truth and why it s so essential to Christianity Surveys the development of this theme in the Reformation and traces the crisis that followed resulting in a shift away from the authority of Scripture Shows that we need to recover a robust doctrine of Scripture s authority in the face of today s challenges and why a solid doctrinal foundation built on God s Word is the best hope for the future of the church This book is an exploration of the past in order to better understand our present and the importance of reviving this indispensable doctrine for the Christian faith and church today

THE FIVE SOLAS Historians and theologians have long recognized that at the heart of the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation were five declarations often referred to as the solas These five statements summarize much of what the Reformation was about and they distinguish Protestantism from other expressions of the Christian faith that they place ultimate and final authority in the Scriptures acknowledge the work of Christ alone as sufficient for redemption recognize that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone and seek to do all things for God s glory The Five Solas Series is more than a simple rehashing of these statements but instead expounds upon the biblical reasoning behind them leading to a more profound theological vision of our lives and callings as Christians and churches

Scripture, Tradition and Reason Richard Bauckham, Benjamin Drewery, 2004-10-28 Essays on scripture tradition and reason at the heart of every major issue confronting the life and thought of all the Christian Churches today in honour of R P C Hanson

What Is the Bible? Matthew Baker, Mark Mourachian, 2016-04-01 The patristic doctrine of Scripture is an understudied topic Recent scholars however have shown considerable interest in patristic exegetical strategies and methods from rhetoric and typology to theory and method far less attention though has been paid to the early Christian understanding of the nature of Scripture itself This volume explores the patristic vision of the Bible the understanding of Scripture as the word of life and salvation the theological liturgical and ascetical practice of reading and is anchored by keynote essays from Fr John McGuckin Paul Blowers and Michael Legaspi The purpose is to reopen a consideration of the doctrine of Scripture for contemporary theology rooted in the tradition of the Church Fathers Greek Latin and Oriental an endeavor inspired by the theological vision of the twentieth century s foremost Orthodox Christian theologian Fr Georges Florovsky Our interest is not in mere description of historical uses of Scripture or interpretive methods but rather in the very nature of Scripture itself and its place within the whole economy of creation revelation and salvation

Scripture and Tradition () Edith M. Humphrey, 2013-04-15 In some of the church s history Scripture has been pitted against tradition and vice versa Prominent New Testament scholar Edith Humphrey who understands the issue from both Protestant and Catholic Orthodox perspectives revisits this perennial point of tension She demonstrates that the Bible itself reveals the importance of tradition exploring how the Gospels Acts and the Epistles show Jesus and the apostles claiming the authority of tradition as God s Word both written and spoken Arguing that Scripture and tradition are not in opposition but are necessarily and inextricably intertwined Humphrey defends tradition as God s gift to the church She also works to dismantle rigid views of sola scriptura while holding a high view of Scripture s authority

Reading Salvation James Swetnam, Robert Louis Wilken, 2005 A publication of the St Paul Center for Biblical Theology in Steubenville Ohio Letter Spirit is a new journal of Catholic biblical theology which seeks to foster a deeper conversation about the Bible In light of the advancements of the last century in recapturing the historical and literary context of Scripture Letter Spirit embraces the challenge of the next century linking the scientific study of Scripture to its liturgical sense in the Church s living tradition

Reading Scripture to Hear God Kevin Storer, 2014-10-01 Recent theological discussions between Catholics and Evangelicals have generated a renewed appreciation for God's ongoing use of Scripture for self-mediation to the Church Noting the significant influence of Henri de Lubac one of the drafters of Dei Verbum and proponent of a renewal of the Patristic and Medieval emphasis on a spiritual sense of Scripture and Kevin Vanhoozer the leading Evangelical proponent of a theological interpretation of Scripture Kevin Storer seeks to draw Evangelical and Catholic theologians into dialogue about God's ongoing use of Scripture in the economy of redemption Storer suggests that a number of traditional tensions between Catholics and Evangelicals such as the literal or spiritual sense of Scripture a sacramental or a covenantal model of God's self-mediation and an emphasis on the authority of Scripture or the authority of the Church can be eased by shifting greater focus upon God's ongoing use of creaturely realities for the building of the Church in union with Christ. This project seeks to enable Evangelicals to appropriate the insights of de Lubac's Catholic Ressourcement project while also encouraging Catholic theologians to appreciate Vanhoozer's Evangelical emphasis on God's use of the literal sense of Scripture to build the Church.
