The Metareferential Turn in Contemporary Arts and Media Werner Wolf, 2011-01-01 One possible description of the contemporary medial landscape in Western culture is that it has gone meta to an unprecedented extent so that a remarkable meta culture has emerged Indeed metareference i.e. self reflexive comments on or references to various kinds of media related aspects of a given medial artefact or performance specific media and arts or the media in general is omnipresent and can nowadays be encountered in high art and literature as frequently as in their popular counterparts in the traditional media as well as in new media From the Simpsons pop music children's literature computer games and pornography to the contemporary visual arts feature film postmodern fiction drama and even architecture everywhere one can find metareferential explorations comments on or criticism of representation medial conventions or modes of production and reception and related issues Within individual media and genres notably in research on postmodernist metafiction this outspoken tendency towards metaization is known well enough and various reasons have been given for it Yet never has there been an attempt to account for what one may aptly term the current metareferential turn on a larger transmedial scale This is what The Metareferential Turn in Contemporary Arts and Media Forms Functions Attempts at Explanation undertakes to do as a sequel to its predecessor the volume Metareference across Media vol 4 in the series Studies in Intermediality which was dedicated to theoretical issues and transhistorical case studies Coming from diverse disciplinary and methodological backgrounds the contributors to the present volume propose explanations of impressive subtlety breadth and depth for the current situation in addition to exploring individual forms and functions of metareference which may be linked with particular explanations As expected there is no monocausal reason to be found for the situation under scrutiny yet the proposals made have in their combination a remarkable explanatory power which contributes to a better understanding of an important facet of current media production and reception The essays assembled in the volume which also contains an introduction with a detailed survey over the possibilities of accounting for the metareferential turn will be relevant to students and scholars from a wide variety of fields cultural history at large intermediality and media studies as well as more particularly literary studies music film and art history Crust Lawrence Shainberg,2008 Walker Linchak is an aged writer and author of the Complete series The Complete Book of Aids 9 11 Terrorism who has often been discussed for the Nobel Prize But he s suffering writer s block One morning Linchak wakes to find a crust in his nose that enlightens him to a new world of desire Extraction of this breakthrough crust leads to further secretion in the form of medical and scientific research into nose picking What ensues is equal parts George Orwell and Christopher Guest an insightful and hilarious journey through today s hyper technological age
