Adult Migrants Learning Literacy in a New Language Christine Czinglar,Kristen H. Perry,Karen Schramm,2026-02-09 Literacy is a prerequisite for participation in many areas of life in modern societies Yet many adult migrants have had no or only limited opportunity to become literate in any language They therefore face the added challenge of becoming literate at the same time as they are learning a new language This book brings together research by authors from different regions of the world who have studied the acquisition processes of adult migrants learning to read and write in a new language The collection includes ethnographic investigations of everyday language and literacy practices classroom studies on the effectiveness of teaching practices and research on high stakes testing and formative multilingual assessment methods Literacy Tutoring in the Community Laurie A. Henry, Norman A. Stahl, 2026-01-29

Literacy Tutoring in the Community presents best practices in literacy tutoring through a guidebook of high impact and systematic instruction toward successful tutoring. With a grounding in pedagogical philosophies this book includes structured approaches to tutoring aligned to the five pillars set forth by the National Reading Panel and it focuses on a variety of proven tutoring models e.g. supplemental instruction, cross age tutoring, parents as tutors. This book emphasizes the importance of leveraging literature to enrich tutoring practices while also making connections between tutoring and schoolwork from the elementary level up to college entry. Through an intentional culturally responsive lens the authors build on funds of knowledge and use a language experience approach along with culturally and linguistically diverse texts to enhance instruction for diverse learners. The book ends with a series of case studies highlighting specific literacy challenges as well as tools for tutors such as a tutoring session lesson plan, literacy lesson log, reading skills checklist, tutor report form and more. This book will be a beneficial resource to tutors working with learners across all ages and school levels. It can serve as a desk reference for literacy focused tutoring programs in libraries, community centers, colleges, service learning classes, philanthropic organizations and more.
