The second edition offers a complete spectrum of information and advice about cerebral palsy and its effect on development and education during a child's first six years. Parents' statements at the end of each chapter provide the reader with insight and perspective on how other families cope. Children with Cerebral Palsy Elaine Geralis, 1998 The future is brighter than ever for children with cerebral palsy the most common developmental disability among young people today. With advances in medicine early intervention and therapy these children can maximise their potential and lead healthy, rewarding lives. But perhaps the most important influence of all comes from parents who provide constant support and encouragement. This is essential reading for all parents who want to learn about cerebral palsy and how it will affect their child and family.

Caring and Competent Caregivers Robert Moroney, 1998 Chronic health conditions are the leading cause of illness, disability and death in the United States today, affecting nearly one hundred million citizens. These conditions cost the economy more than 470 billion a year in direct medical costs and more than 230 billion in lost productivity. While Americans pride themselves on living in a caring country society as a whole has not fully prepared for the many challenges presented by chronic illness. This timely book illustrates the caregiving needs to be faced in the next century. Written by individuals associated with the National Quality Caregiving Coalition (NQCC) of the Rosalynn Carter Institute, Caring and Competent Caregivers is a foundation book for use by academicians conducting professional training programs, diverse health care and social service providers on the front lines providing assistance to others and students entering the field. Incorporating philosophy, social science research and impressionistic evidence, this book provides a basis for education and practice that is both inspirational and practical.
