, 1992 Families Under Fire R. Blaine Everson, Charles R. Figley, 2011-01-07 As provider networks on military bases are overwhelmed with new cases civilian clinicians are increasingly likely to treat military families However these clinicians do not receive the same military mental healthcare training as providers on military installations adding strain to clinicians workloads and creating gaps in levels of treatment Families Under Fire fills these gaps with real world examples clear concise prose and nuts and bolts approaches for working with military families utilizing a systems based practice that is effective regardless of branch of service or the practitioner's therapeutic preference Any civilian mental health practitioner who wants to understand the diverse needs of military personnel their spouses and their families will rely on this indispensable guidebook for years to come

Combined Parent-Child Cognitive Behavioral Therapy Melissa K. Runyon, Esther Deblinger, 2013-09-19 Violence is an epidemic that negatively impacts children across their lifespan Reports indicate 21 million youth have experienced physical abuse during their lifetimes disrupting the healthy development of children from the toddler years through adolescence and most cases involve parents Some parents lack the skills to effectively parent and use physical discipline as a strategy to control their children's problem behaviors They may use increasing force if children continue to be noncompliant which places many children at risk for harm Combined Parent Child Cognitive Behavioral Therapy CPC CBT created by Melissa K Runyon and Esther Deblinger and outlined in this guide provides an evidence based intervention aimed at empowering families to develop optimistic outlooks on parenting and peaceful home environments and to decrease stress experienced both by parents and children CPC CBT incorporates elements from empirically supported CBT models for families who have experienced physical abuse sexual abuse and domestic violence additionally CPC CBT draws on concepts from developmental theory learning theory family systems theory and motivational interviewing The target population includes children ages 3-17 years and their parents caregivers who have already engaged in or are at risk for physically abusive behavior towards their children This manual is for clinicians clinical supervisors administrators and others who are considering the implementation of CPC CBT in their agencies with families at
