Women Filmmakers in Sinophone World Cinema Zhen Zhang,2025-10-01 Women Filmmakers in Sinophone World Cinema portrays a group of important contemporary women filmmakers working across the Sinophone world including Taiwan Hong Kong mainland China and beyond The book delineates and conceptualizes their cinematic and trans media practices within an evolving multifaceted feminist intimate public commons The films by these experienced and emerging filmmakers including Huang Yu shan Yau Ching Ai Xiaoming Wen Hui Huang Ji and others represent some of the most innovative and socially engaged work in both fictional and non fictional modes in Chinese language cinema as well as global women s cinema Their narrative documentary and experimental film practices from the 1980s to the present along with their work in sister media such as dance theater literature and contemporary art their activities as scholars educators activists and film festival organizers or jurors have significantly reshaped the landscape of Sinophone film culture and expanded the borders of world cinema

Infrastructure Communication in International Relations Carolijn van Noort,2020-11-09 This book demonstrates how infrastructure projects and the communications thereof are strategized by rising powers to envision progress to enhance the actor s international identity and to substantiate and leverage the actor s vision of international order While the physical aspects of infrastructure are important infrastructure communication in international relations demands more scholarly attention Using a case study approach Carolijn van Noort examines how rising powers communicate about infrastructure internationally and discusses the significance of these communication practices The four case studies include BRICS s summit communications about infrastructure Brazil s infrastructure promises to Africa China s communication of the Belt and Road Initiative in East Africa and Kazakhstan s news media coverage of China s Belt and Road Initiative Van Noort highlights the fact that the link between infrastructure identity and order making is arbitrary and thus contested in practice with rising powers operationalizing infrastructure communication in international relations in varied ways She argues that both communication organization and the visibility of strategic narratives on infrastructure influence the international communication of infrastructure vision and action plans with different levels of success Infrastructure Communication in International Relations is a welcome and timely book of interest to students and scholars in the fields of international relations global communications and the politics of infrastructure

Underglobalization Joshua Neves,2020-03-06 Despite China s recent emergence as a major global economic and geopolitical power its association with counterfeit goods and intellectual property piracy has led many in the West to dismiss its urbanization and globalization as suspect or inauthentic In Underglobalization Joshua Neves examines the cultural politics of the fake and how frictions between legality and legitimacy propel dominant models of economic development and political life in contemporary China Focusing on a wide range of media technologies and practices in

Beijing Neves shows how piracy and fakes are manifestations of what he calls underglobalization the ways social actors undermine and refuse to implement the specific procedures and protocols required by globalization at different scales By tracking the rise of fake politics and transformations in political society in China and globally Neves demonstrates that they are alternate outcomes of globalizing processes rather than anathema to them Best Books for Children Catherine Barr,2006 Contains more than 25 000 titles of books recommended for children in grades K 6 Global Gothic Barbara Borngässer,Bruno Klein,2022-02-17 Gothic style and contemporary architecture worldwide Although largely overlooked in studies of architectural history church architecture in a Gothic idiom outlived its 19th century momentum to persist worldwide throughout the 20th century and into the new millennium Global Gothic presents a first systematic worldwide understanding of Gothic in contemporary architecture both as a distinct variation and as a competitor to recognized modern styles The book s chapters critically discuss Gothic s various manifestations over the past century describing and illustrating approaches from Gothic Revival living traditions in the former British Empire and original Gothic appropriation in Latin America to competitions of European builders in former Asian and African colonies The focus is also on the special appropriations in North America China and Japan as well as contemporary solutions that tend to be transnational in style With contributions from renowned architecture experts from around the world Global Gothic provides an overview of this cultural phenomenon and presents a wealth of stunning material much of it little known Richly illustrated in full color it offers an important contribution to colonial and postcolonial global art history and a seldom acknowledged perspective on art history in general Contributors Barbara Borngässer Technische Universität Dresden Mart n M Checa Artasu Metropolitan Autonomous University Mexico City Thomas Coomans KU Leuven Pedro Guedes University of Queensland Bruno Klein Technische Universität Dresden Bettina Marten Technische Universität Dresden Olimpia Niglio Hosei University Tokyo Peter Scriver University of Adelaide Amit Srivastava University of Adelaide This publication is GPRC labeled Guaranteed Peer Reviewed Content Best Books for Children, Preschool Through Grade 6 ,2006 MultiCultural Review ,2008
