Consuming China Kevin Latham,Stuart Thompson,Jakob Klein,2012-08-21 Post Mao China has been characterized in literature and the media as a burgeoning consumer society Consuming China investigates this characterization by examining the cultural significance of consumption and consumerism in the People's Republic of China today In questioning the notion of consumption this impressive work suggests that it is not simply a symptom of economic reform within China neither a product of the emergence and transformation of contemporary Chinese capitalism Rather the essays offer a new perspective on Chinese consumption by focusing on more than just consumerism looking at the practices of consumption in relation to different manifestations of social and cultural change Drawing on case studies from Taiwan Hong Kong and the People's Republic of China Consuming China affords a greater understanding of the practice of Chinese consumption and will appeal to China scholars and anthropologists and to those with an interest in cultural and gender studies

Media and Cultural Transformation in China Haiqing Yu,2009-02-24 This book examines the role played by the media in China's cultural transformation in the early years of the 21st century In contrast to the traditional view that sees the Chinese media as nothing more than a tool of communist propaganda it demonstrates that the media is integral to China's changing culture in the age of globalization whilst also being part and parcel of the State and its project of re imagining national identity that is essential to the post socialist reform agenda It describes how the Party state can effectively use media events to pull social cultural and political resources and forces together in the name of national rejuvenation However it also illustrates how non state actors can also use reporting of media events to dispute official narratives and advance their own interests and perspectives It discusses the implications of this interplay between state and non state actors in the Chinese media for conceptions of identity citizenship and ethics identifying the areas of mutual accommodation and appropriation as well as those of conflict and contestation It explores these themes with detailed analysis of four important media spectacles the media events surrounding the new millennium celebrations the news reporting of SARS the media stories about AIDS and SARS and the media campaign war between the Chinese state and the Falun Gong movement

An Introductory Study on China's Cultural Transformation in Recent Times Yunzhi Geng,2014-10-22 This book examines in detail the basic trajectory of the cultural transformation and brings to light the extrinsic conditions and intrinsic mechanisms involved It focuses on the period from after the Opium Wars to the New Culture Movement as the New Culture Movement can be considered a pivotal phase in the cultural transformation of modern day China The New Culture Movement was a revolutionary eruption triggered by the accumulation of all the new qualitative cultural factors since the Opium Wars Superficially the movement's goal seemed to be to overthrow the traditional culture But in essence its true objective was to conduct an overall screening of that culture The book elaborates a broad variety of points in this context including the ideological and cultural evolution following the Opium Wars the pressing challenges faced by Zhong Ti the initial shaping of social public and cultural spaces and major trends in ideological and cultural transformation at the end of the Qing Dynasty the political disarray and conflicts between the new and old ideology in the first years of the Republic the rise of the New Culture Movement and the role of conservatism in the transition to a modern culture

Media and Cultural Transformation in China Haiqing Yu, 2009-02-24 This book examines the role played by the media in China's ongoing cultural transformation It demonstrates that the media is integral to China's changing culture in the age of globalization whilst also being part and parcel of the State and its project of reimagining national identity

Culture and Social Transformations in Reform Era China Tian Yu Cao, Xueping Zhong, Kebin Liao, 2010 In the face of rapid and radical social changes since the late 1970s contemporary China faces tremendous challenges What is China transforming toward What are the ideological positions and more generally cultural values that inform question and demand critical assessment of the social transformations in the reform era This collection of essays aims at addressing these questions Written by some of the leading intellectuals and thinkers in and outside of contemporary China the essays in different ways examine the extent to which three major cultural resources namely traditional May Fourth and socialist have been reinterpreted reappropriated and mobilized to address the challenges brought about by the changed and changing social and economic conditions of the reform era

Authority Participation and Cultural Change in China Stuart R. Schram, 1973-09-27 This 1973 volume is a fascinating collection of original studies on the immediate consequences and the likely long term effects of the Chinese Cultural Revolution the enormous social and political upheaval initiated by Mao Tse Tung in 1966 The authors discuss a series of connected problems all intimately related to the central theme of leadership and participation in the Chinese pattern of economic development and social change The collection is edited by Stuart Schram who also provides a long introduction he puts the Cultural Revolution in the broad historical perspective of the Chinese revolution as it has taken shape since the end of the nineteenth century

Understanding Contemporary China George P. Jan, 2004 China is a rapidly developing world power Its rise is causing some concern about the China threat to the United States It is important to the American people to have a better understanding of the true conditions in China so we can deal with it rationally and effectively The main purpose of this book is to provide the reader with a comprehensive description and objective analysis of the strengths and weaknesses of present day China Special emphasis is placed on U S China relations It covers China s history land and people political system economic development educational scientific and technological developments military power social and cultural changes Chinese nationalism overseas Chinese the Taiwan issue China s global influence U S China relations and the prospects of China s future development in the twenty first century and its impact on U S China relations The China threat notion is critically assessed The book also makes some suggestions to enable the United States and China to manage their conflicts and to peacefully co exist to promote mutual interests international peace security and prosperity Forces for Change in Contemporary China Bih-jaw Lin,James T. Myers,1992 The Great Wall in Ruins Godwin C. Chu,Yanan Ju,1993-09-30 This book presents a survey of rural and urban Chinese people examining the dramatic changes in traditional culture that have taken place and documenting the nature of contemporary Chinese culture Chu and Ju examine attitudes about family relations social relations job preferences and work ethic organizational relations community life and belief systems Although there remains some limited continuity with the past mainly in family stability the book shows how lifestyle and values in post Mao China today reveal a radical departure from traditional Chinese culture The authors discover that Chinese people no longer endorse the Confucian precepts of harmony and tolerance nor do they submit compliantly to authority as previous generations did They now demonstrate in an environment of rising aspirations and mounting frustration a new assertiveness as seen in the tragic outburst in the Tiananmen demonstrations Pacific Area Institute of World Affairs,1930 The Art of Contemporary China Jiang Jiehong,2021-04-06 A redefinition of contemporary Chinese art from the last forty years in the context of unprecedented cultural political and urban transformation written by an authority on the subject Contemporary Chinese art is a subject of sustained and growing significance in present day culture across the globe This new volume in the World of Art series reframes Chinese art since the end of China s Cultural Revolution more than four decades ago placing it in the context of the nation s unprecedented cultural political and urban transformation Based on original research by writer curator and leading scholar in the field of contemporary Chinese art Jiang Jiehong this volume explores the area through firsthand materials and in depth interviews with more than thirty artists Providing the most up to date understanding of contemporary Chinese art Jiang includes a variety of media ranging from painting printmaking sculpture and photography to installation video performance and participatory art Featuring over 150 color images of artworks by more than fifty internationally renowned Chinese artists including Ai Weiwei and Zhang Peili as well as emerging artists such as Zhao Zhao The Art of Contemporary China presents a wide variety of practices through curatorial discussions and images of original installation views and historical art events What emerges are revelations on art and new insights into contemporary China Fulfilling a need for an accessible affordable introduction to contemporary Chinese art this volume offers a concise but far reaching survey of the movement Modern Notions of Civilization and Culture in China Weigui Fang,2019-02-20 This Key Concepts pivot examines the fundamental Chinese ideas of Civilization and culture considering their extensive influence both over Chinese society and East Asian societies The pivot analyses the traditional connotations of those two concepts and their evolution in the Sino Western exchanges as well as their renewed interpretation and application by contemporary Chinese scholars It analyses how the years 1840 1900 which mark a period of major transition in China challenged these concepts and highlights how the pursuit of innovation and international perspective gave birth to new values and paradigm shifts and culminated in the May Fourth New Culture Movement Considering the underlying humanistic ideas in the key concepts of traditional Chinese civilisation and culture this pivot contributes to this series of Chinese Key Concept by offering a unique analysis of the conceptual evolutions brought about by the change of values in 21st century China
