Questions of Anthropology Rita Astuti, Jonathan Parry, Charles Stafford, 2020-06-08 Anthropology today seems to shy away from the big comparative questions that ordinary people in many societies find compelling Questions of Anthropology brings these issues back to the centre of anthropological concerns Individual essays explore birth death and sexuality puzzles about the relationship between science and religion questions about the nature of ritual work political leadership and genocide and our personal fears and desires from the quest to control the future and to find one's true identity to the fear of being alone Each essay starts with a question posed by individual ethnographic experience and then goes on to frame this question in a broader comparative context Written in an engaging and accessible style Questions of Anthropology presents an exciting introduction to the purpose and value of Anthropology today

Beasts of the Sky Jon Hackett, Seán Harrington, Damian O'Byrne, 2025-01-07 Often the sky is conceptualised as a place of infinite possibilities past the limits of our scientific explorations and into the realms of our fiction and speculation it is the site for our thoughts on the future of the extra terrestrial and beyond Our representations in the media of space sky and the infinite invariably mediate social and cultural anxieties that are current looming and indeed threatening These concerns range from the environment and fears of ecosystem collapse the nuclear arms and space race modernity utopia and dystopia Beasts of the Sky Strange Sightings from the Stratosphere is the third and final collection in the Beasts series This collection offers its readers an in depth and interdisciplinary engagement with the skies above and their monstrous inhabitants through critical readings of science fiction and popular culture through the media of film television popular music digital games and animation Within this collection there are a multitude of convergent critical perspectives used to engage and explore fictional and real monstrosities of the sky and space in media As with previous collections Skies features chapters from a variety of academic perspectives genre and narrative textual analysis spectatorship and reception Tolkien studies performance studies digital media and indeed fiction are featured Under examination are a wide range of narratives and media forms that represent reimagine and create subjects as varied as the threat of nuclear weapons sightings of UFOs space exploration and flying creatures

Silicon Dragon: How China Is Winning the Tech Race Rebecca Fannin, 2008-01-10 If you want to discover the Next Big Thing in technology ENTER THE DRAGON You already know that China is the most populated nation on the planet You already know about the rapid growth of its Internet and the recent development of its technologies But did you realize that China has The world s largest number of mobile phone users 500 million Three times as many engineering students as the United States A dozen more billion dollar tech firms than the United States The fastest growing venture capital market in the world It s time to face the facts China is catching up to the United States as a global leader of technology and within a few years may surpass every nation in the world By modeling their new techno based companies on successful American ones like Google and Yahoo a new breed of entrepreneur is leading China through a second Industrial Revolution Financial journalist Rebecca A Fannin traveled from Shanghai to Beijing and beyond to speak face to face with China s hottest up and comers For some of these young entrepreneurs it s their first interview with the Western press and their first chance to introduce their companies before the stocks hit Nasdaq You ll meet smart and savvy self starters like Robin Li who made his company Baidu in the image of Google You ll meet inventors and innovators like Liu Yingkui who developed software for selling goods over cell phones not PCs You ll also meet the American venture capitalists who are searching for deals every day in every corner of China Whether you re an investor entrepreneur techno whiz or dot com mogul you can make peace with the dragon and profits too
