We Need to Talk About Defence Andrew

Curtis,2024-09-19 Based on a distinguished 35 year career in the RAF as an Air Commodore Andrew R Curtis highlights what is wrong with the way defence is managed today and presents evidence based proposals to fix it Defence is failing to deliver From the ability of the Ministry of Defence MoD to develop defence policy to the single service s Royal Navy British Army and Royal Air Force RAF ability to acquire and maintain military capability and undertake military operations This is not a new problem indeed ever since the creation of the MoD in 1964 there have been tensions between the department of state and the armed forces over allocations of responsibility authority and accountability Concerned with political oversight the allocation of responsibility authority and accountability administration of people organisational structures and policies and processes Curtis compellingly demonstrates the critical need to reform the management of Defence for the UK s armed forces to fight and win in the future

Street Smart Gabriel Roth,2017-07-05 The poor health of today s roads a subject close to the hearts of motorists taxpayers and government treasurers around the world has resulted from faulty incentives that misdirect government decision makers according to the contributors to Street Smart During the 1990s bad government decision making resulted in the U S Interstate Highway System growing by only one seventh the rate of traffic growth The poor maintenance of existing roads is another concern In cities around the world highly political and wasteful government decision making has led to excessive traffic congestion that has created long commutes reduced safety and caused loss of leisure time Street Smart examines the privatization of roads in theory and in practice The authors see at least four possible roles for private companies beyond the well known one of working under contract to design build or maintain governmentally provided roads These include testing and licensing vehicles and drivers management of government owned facilities franchising and outright private ownership Two chapters describe the history of private roads in the United Kingdom and the United States Contemporary examples are provided of road pricing privatizing and contracting out are evident in environs as diverse as Singapore Southern California and Scandinavia and cities as different as Bergen Norway and London England Finally several chapters examine strategies for implementing privatization The principles governing providing scarce resources in free societies are well known We apply them to such necessities as energy food and water so why not to road space The main obstacle to private or semi private ownership of roads is likely to remain the reluctance of the political class to give up a lucrative source of power and influence Those who want decisions about road services to be controlled by the interplay of consumers and suppliers in free markets rat The Civil Service of Malaysia Malaysia. Unit Pemodenan Tadbiran dan Perancangan Tenaga Manusia,1997 Cutting Red Tape From Red Tape to Smart Tape Administrative Simplification in OECD Countries OECD,2003-06-02 Too much red tape is a common complaint from businesses and citizens in OECD countries This report analyses proven approaches commonly adopted by governments to reduce and streamline administrative procedures like one stop shops physical and Malawi Civil Service ICT Strategic Plan Malawi Civil Service,2003 The Civil Service Year Book Great Britain.
