France Debbie Lackerstein,2016-04-22 The creators of the Vichy regime did not intend merely to shield France from the worst effects of military defeat and occupation rather the leaders of Vichy were inspired by a will to regenerate France to establish an authoritarian new order that would repair the degenerative effects of parliamentary democracy and liberal society Their plan to effect this change took the form of a far reaching programme they called the National Revolution This is the first study of the National Revolution as the expression of Vichy s ideology and aims It reveals the variety and complexity of both right wing and other strands of French thought in the context of the turbulent years of the 1930s when Vichy s history really begins and under the Occupation when internal rivalries and divisions as well as the pressures of war doomed

Vichy's programme of national regeneration The book is structured around a consideration of the rhetoric of right wing ideology and such key catchwords as decadence action order realism and new man and shows how these phrases only served to mask the political and ideological incoherence of the Vichy government Notices of the Proceedings Royal Institution of Great Britain, 1925 Alienist and Neurologist Charles Hamilton Hughes, 1914 Notices of the Proceedings at the Meetings of the Members of the Royal Institution, with Abstracts of the Discourses Royal Institution of Great Britain, 1925
