Soul of Politics Glenn Ellmers, 2021-09-07 Harry V Jaffa 1918-2015 professor at Claremont McKenna College and Distinguished Fellow of the Claremont Institute was one of the most influential thinkers of the 20th century. His hundreds of students have reached positions of power and prestige throughout the intellectual and political world including the Supreme Court and the Trump White House. Jaffa authored Barry Goldwater's famous 1964 Republican Convention speech which declared Extremism in the defense of liberty is no vice And moderation in the pursuit of justice is no virtue. William F Buckley Jaffa's close friend and a key figure in shaping the modern conservative movement wrote If you think it is hard arguing with Harry Jaffa try agreeing with him. His widely acclaimed book Crisis of the House Divided An Interpretation of the Issues in the Lincoln Douglas Debates 1959 was the first scholarly work to treat Abraham Lincoln as a serious philosophic thinker. As the earliest protégé of the controversial scholar Leo Strauss Jaffa turned his theoretical insights to understanding the United States as the best regime in principle. He saw the American Revolution and the Civil War as world historical events that revealed the true nature of politics. Statesmanship constitutional government and the virtues of republican citizenship are keys to unlocking the most important truths of political philosophy. Jaffa's student Glenn Ellmers was given complete access to Jaffa's private papers at Hillsdale College to produce the first comprehensive examination of his teacher's vast body of work. In addition to Lincoln and the founding fathers the book shares Jaffa's profound insights into Aristotle Shakespeare

The Academic Trumpists David L. Swartz, 2024-08-01 Matt Dawson and David L. Swartz discuss The Academic Trumpists on the New Books in Sociology podcast. Reviewed by Scott McLemee in Inside Higher Ed. Donald Trump wants to dismantle the Department of Education. Some professors would welcome it by David L. Swartz in Salon. There has been an outpouring of research on populist conservatism since the advent of the Trump presidency and extreme right movements in Europe. Much less studied, however, is the growing political conservatism in the American academy and how it relates to populist sentiment. The Academic Trumpists addresses a gap in the research literature by looking at the impact of Trumpism on conservative faculty. It compares 109 professors who publicly support Trump to 89 conservative professors who oppose Trump. All 198 function as public intellectuals who advocated publicly their views. Drawing on recent research in the sociology of intellectuals and Pierre Bourdieu's analytical field perspective, this book offers a fielding political identities and practices framework to show how these two groups of professors Trumpists and anti-Trumpists differ in where they teach, their intellectual orientations, their scholarly productivity, their political rationales, where they network with think tanks, scholarly professional associations and government agencies and their stances on key controversies surrounding the Trump presidency, Covid 19, the two impeachments, the November 2020 election, the January 6 mob assault on the United States Capitol. The academic Trumpists embrace the right wing populist wave mobilized by Trump and the conservative critics resist this move. This polarization of views between these two groups of conservative professors is enduring and rooted in two distinct social networks that connect their positions in the academic field to affiliations with conservative think tanks that reinforce their respective political identities and radical right wing anti-establishment thinking in America more generally. This book will appeal to readers interested in the politics of higher education, the sociology of intellectuals, political sociology and research.
