The Next Antitrust Agenda American Antitrust Institute, 2008 The American Antitrust Institute AAI was founded in 1998 as an independent nonprofit education research and advocacy organization Celebrating its tenth anniversary during the important 2008 presidential campaign the AAI determined to utilize this year to generate an integrated vision for re energizing competition policy in the United States Ours is a vision that departs in substantial ways from the outlook that has driven competition policy for much of the past generation We offer it to the next administration without presupposition as to which party will control Congress or who the President will be Traditionally the ideal of competition as the preferred regulator of business behavior has enjoyed bipartisan support beginning with the introduction of the Sherman Act in 1890 by a Republican and its signing into law by a Republican But interpretations of what constitutes healthy competition and priorities for enforcement have varied over time sometimes dramatically Indeed there have been periods of war or depression when the ideal of competition has been eclipsed by other priorities and policies Yet time and again the ideal has been rejuvenated by both Republicans and Democrats We argue that we should now be entering a period of reinterpretation and rejuvenation This Report is the edited product of a set of committees formed in the fall of 2007 The committee chairs and participants are all members of the AAI s Advisory Board The Report consists of ten chapters and an introduction to competition policy and the philosophy behind the Report The first set of chapters examines substantive areas of antitrust law and economics including cartel enforcement monopolization merger policy and a relative newcomer to antitrust discourse buyer power The following chapters then offer prescriptions for building the institutions of public enforcement and restoring the legitimacy of private enforcement Finally the report concludes with four chapters devoted to several of the key economic sectors in which competition policy issues are currently important media food health and energy Together these sectors account for more than one third of the national economy

Rubin,2013-06-07 A series of semi autobiographical sketches and stories detailing life in Charleston South Carolina in the 1930s and 40s Growing up in Charleston in the 1930s and 1940s accomplished storyteller Louis Rubin witnessed the subtle gradations of caste and class among neighborhoods from south of Broad Street where established families and traditional mores held sway to the various enclaves of Uptown in which middle class and blue collar families went about their own diverse lives and routines In Uptown Downtown in Old Charleston Rubin draws on autobiography and imagination in briskly paced renderings of his native Charleston that capture the atmosphere of the Holy City during an era when the population had not yet swelled above sixty five thousand Rubin s wide eyed narrator takes readers on excursions to Adger s Wharf the Battery Union Terminal the shops of King Street the Majestic Theater the College of Charleston and other recognizable landmarks With youthful glee he watches the barges and shrimp trawlers along the waterfront rides streetcars down Rutledge Avenue and trains to Savannah and Richmond paddles the Ashley River in a leaky homemade boat pitches left handed for the youngest team in the Twilight Baseball League ponders the curious chanting coming from the Jewish Community Center and catches magical glimpses of the Morris Island lighthouse from atop the Folly Beach Ferris wheel His fascination with the gas electric Boll Weevil train epitomizes his appreciation for the freedom of movement between the worlds of Uptown and Downtown that defines his youth in Charleston This collection ends with a homecoming to Charleston by our narrator then a young man in his early twenties as his inbound train is greeted by familiar vistas of the city as well as by views he had never encountered before This is the city Rubin called home where there were always surprising discoveries to be found both in the burgeoning newness of Uptown and the storied legacies of Downtown Uptown Downtown in Old Charleston is about a city in some ways larger than the state in which it resides The book is also about memory and boyhood and baseball and boats and trains and family and it packs a great wallop because it's written by one of the country's finest writers These nine stories are among the best nine innings of history you'll ever read Clyde Edgerton Louis Rubin brings the city to life with his insider guide to a secret Charleston too often overlooked in the carriage tours and guidebooks of today Rubin allows you to enter the soul of the real Charleston revealing its essence and depth A wonderful necessary book Pat Conroy author of South of Broad
