But when you're 17 and not an heiress, reality is far from pink fizzy drinks and red velvet ropes. As the summer heats up, Emma learns that glamour is hard to come by when your only friend is too boy crazy to hang your budget is more H.M. than D.G. and you spend 8 hours a day working for a man who proves that the devil wears Dockers. Too Add one little white lie told to one very hot coworker and a roommate who makes Paris Hilton look junior varsity and this summer in the city is starting to turn into one hot mess.

Sartre and No Child Left Behind, Darian M. Parker, 2015-12-16. Sartre and No Child Left Behind: An Existential Psychoanalytic Anthropology of Urban Schooling asks two fundamental questions: Who do students become as a result of inhabiting impoverished urban schools for eight hours a day, five days a week, over the course of several years? What happens to the hearts, minds, and spirits of these children? Using nine months of field observation and interviews with students, teachers, and administrators at a New York City middle school, The Academy (pseudonym), the book offers an in-depth analysis of students' psychological and emotional experiences of the Title I school environment. Ultimately, the book demonstrates how the children's experiences become a part of a vicious chain of events. The history of racial segregation guarantees inferior schooling conditions and, as a result, the students perform poorly. The school closes; gentrification efforts accelerate these closings and, ultimately, the school's community dies a whisper-less death. Propelling the study is a new anthropological theory of human consciousness. By synthesizing the insights of Sartre, Africana existentialists, phenomenologists, and sociocultural anthropologists, Parker offers a preliminary outline for a theory that he names existential psychoanalytic anthropology. Based on Sartre's existential psychoanalysis, which asserts that we choose who we are from a field of possible beings that we encounter in our cultural environment, existential psychoanalytic anthropology studies the complex ways that culture and consciousness work together to form an individual being To Love and Protect Muriel Jensen,2015-11-01 She ll make Christmas magic in spite of him In all his years as a cop Ben Palmer had seen some hard cases But Corie Ochoa took the cake There was more hostility in her gorgeous five foot one frame than he d seen in hardened criminals Not to mention her uncanny knack for getting herself in trouble But she was his adopted brother s sister and he was going to help her whether she liked it or not And clearly she didn t Too bad He hadn t come all the way to Texas to let this infuriating woman off the hook Every instinct told him there was more to this story and to her New York ,2007 The New York Times Index
