- Please keep a list of words that you do not know. Define and understand these terms.
- Highlight and annotate significant words, phrases, and sentences in your margins. Keep in mind literary devices such as suspense, conflict, characterization, symbolism, and theme as you do this. More specifically, consider the following: What effect does immigration have on the character(s)? What message does the author want to convey about immigration? Are there any laws or rules that must be broken by the protagonist in the quest for a better life? Is he justified in breaking these laws or rules?

Setting- The beginning of the book is set in Ziavi which is the African village that Amari and Besa have grown up in. Then they are taken away to Cape Coast Castle and are loaded onto the slave ships to America. They are then sold and Amari goes to Charlestown, South Carolina. In the end, they make it to Fort Mose, Florida.

The time period for this book is around the 1700s.

- Conflicts- Internal - Amari couldn't decide whether to go to North or South for freedom. They could have ended up anywhere, but they end up going south. Polly wanted to go north but Amari knew she had to go South.
- She couldn't choose in between to choose what her heart says or her mind.

She gets taken away from her village in Africa to be a slave in America.

Theme- The theme of the book is to be strong and never give up which is exactly what Amari did. She saw her parents die in front of her and also her brother, but she knew she couldn't give up even though she was raped and beaten. She was very strong and all she wanted was to have freedom even though it meant danger.

Suspense- The book keeps us waiting till the end of the book to see if they ever get freedom and reach Fort Mose.

Symbolism- Copper Sun- the book mentions about the sun a lot.

What effect does immigration have on the character(s)?

The characters especially Amari faces a lot of difficulty, her parents dying in front of her, her brother killed, her fiance Besa also trapped and beaten, being raped and beaten, taken to some place she doesn't know, being sold to the owner's son as a
