Booktube Recommendations Novel:

Social Reading Cultures on BookTube, Bookstagram, and BookTok Bronwyn Reddan, Leonie Rutherford, Amy Schoonens, Michael Dezuanni, 2024-04-30 This book examines the reading cultures developed by communities of readers and book lovers on BookTube, Bookstagram, and BookTok as an increasingly important influence on contemporary book and literary culture. It explores how the affordances of social media platforms invite readers to participate in social reading communities and engage in creative and curatorial practices that express their identity as readers and book lovers. The interdisciplinary team of authors argue that by creating new opportunities for readers to engage in social reading practices, bookish social media has elevated the agency and visibility of readers and book consumers within literary culture. It has also reshaped the cultural and economic dynamics of book recommendations by creating a space in which different actors are able to form an identity as mediators of reading culture. Concise and accessible, this introduction to an increasingly central set of literary practices is essential reading for students and scholars of literature, sociology, media, and cultural studies, as well as teachers and professionals in the book and library industries. InkShard: A Compendium of Essays Eric

Muss-Barnes, 2019-06-16 InkShard is a compendium of articles and social commentary written by author Eric Muss Barnes between 2004 and 2018. Revised and expanded, this volume assembles various topics culled from posts on social media websites to the scripts of video essays. Carefully compiled from the finest of his journalistic work, InkShard represents the definitive collection of Eric's most compelling dissertations and beloved editorials. How to Promote Your Book Jan

Yager, 2023-01-18 Writing a great book is the easy part. Getting people to buy the book is wicked hard. Jan's book shows you what promotion to do so you increase the possibility that your book becomes a bestseller. Jeffrey Fox, bestselling author, How to Become a Rainmaker. Being an author is 50% creative and 50% promotion. Jan Yager's comprehensive and practical book, How to Promote Your Book, tells authors exactly what they need to know and do to promote their book. I'm recommending it to all the authors I know, including those whose books I share through my Bedside Reading program. Jane Ubell Meyer, CEO, Bedside Reading, former TV producer, Good Morning America, Entertainment Tonight, WSJ TV. Whether your book is being released through a commercial publisher or an academic press, or you are self-publishing it as the author, you can and should play a crucial role in getting your title seen, talked about, and sold. And while you may watch dozens of authors pitch their books on TV, in social media, and in bookstores, they represent only a fraction of the writers who come out with new books each year. What do they know that you don't? They know what to do to get attention for themselves and, more important, for their books, and as you will discover in book publishing veteran Jan Yager's How to Promote Your Book, you can too. The book is divided into three sections. Part One begins with a look at promotion basics. These include knowing what your book's marketplaces are, who your audience is, how the media is divided, the elements involved in publicity, and how to create an effective promotional timeline. Once you understand the basics, Part Two focuses on the ways to package and market yourself.

to the various book and media outlets It discusses putting together professional looking press releases and media kits It also explains how to obtain endorsements and reviews as well as how to generate speaking engagements and interviews with journalists bloggers and radio TV and podcast hopes Part Three provides a plan that covers the first three months of an author's publicity program from the day the book is formally released through all the media events that have been lined up Throughout the book you will find insets that answer important questions such as What are the real costs involved and Should I promote myself or hire a publicist Just as important the author includes a valuable resource guide that provides the names addresses and links to many of the key places covered in the book Jan Yager has enjoyed a fabulous career as both a best selling author and a publisher She has been interviewed by many of the top shows on TV and radio In How to Promote Your Book she lets you in on what she has done both for herself and for her authors to open the door to effective publicity

The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature Gigi Adair,Rebecca Fasselt,Carly McLaughlin,2024-07-30 The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature offers a comprehensive survey of an increasingly important field It demonstrates the influence of the age of migration on literature and showcases the role of literature in shaping socio political debates and creating knowledge about the migratory trajectories lives and experiences that have shaped the post 1989 world The contributors examine a broad range of literary texts and critical approaches that cover the spectrum between voluntary and forced migration In doing so they reflect the shift in recent years from the author centric study of migrant writing to a more inclusive conception of migration literature The book contains sections on key terms and critical approaches in the field important genres of migration literature a range of forms and trajectories of migration with a particular focus on the global South and on migration literature's relevance in social contexts outside the academy Its range of scholarly voices on literature from different geographical contexts and in different languages is central to its call for and contribution to a pluriversal turn in literary migration studies in future scholarship This Companion will be of particular interest to scholars working on contemporary migration literature and it also offers an introduction to new students and scholars from other fields Chapter 15 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Mediation and Multimodal Meaning Making in Digital Environments Ilaria Moschini,Maria Grazia Sindoni,2021-11-15 This collection explores the mediation of a wide range of processes texts and practices in contemporary digital environments through the lens of a multimodal theory of communication Bringing together contributions from renowned scholars in the field the book builds on the notion that any form of digital communication inherently presents a rich combination of different semiotic modes and resources as a jumping off point from which to critically reflect on digital mediation from three different perspectives The first section looks at social and semiotic practices and the implications of their mediation on artistic production cultural heritage and commerce The second part of the volume focuses on dynamics of awareness cognition and identity formation in participants to digitally mediated communicative processes The book's final section considers the impact of mediation on shaping new and different types of textualities and genres in digital spaces The book will be of particular interest to scholars researchers and students in multimodality digital communication social semiotics and media studies

Jackson Jacoby is a motherless twenty two year old boy with only the support of his crazy ex military Uncle Marve and a kindred motherless peer named Creg Creg holds fast to the hope of one day reuniting with his mother while Jackson maintains that his own life is so much better off without all the baggage that comes along with being somebody's son After finding a plea in a newspaper from a woman begging her runaway son Kevin Masons to return home Jackson takes the opportunity to prove to Creg that a mother is not necessary to be happy What begins as a drunken call to the mysterious mother leads to a cross country pilgrimage to attend the will reading of Kevin's recently deceased grandfather Along the way Jackson spreads tales of his participation in the human appendage trade the history of his missing ear and anything else that might validate his life the way he insists that a mother never could From I Didn't Mean to be Kevin My mother kicked me out when I was ten I slept on couches benches in ditches and did everything short of kill house pets in order to eat My uncle took me in during the worst of it but because I was alone for most of my life I never had the opportunity to know if what I was doing truly mattered Validation is a basic need in all of us If you don t get it as a kid you try getting it as a teenager If you don t get it as a teenager you try getting it as a twenty two year old deformed vagabond My uncle says I have nomadic roots but that implies roots of some kind I ve never had roots I ve never had a home life to point me where I needed to go I ve never had a destination until recently Reading Bestsellers Danielle Fuller,DeNel Rehberg Sedo,2023-04-27 Readers are essential agents in the production of bestsellers but bestsellers are not essential to readers leisure pursuits The starting point in this Element is readers opinions about and their uses of bestselling fiction in English Readers relationships with bestsellers bring into view their practices of book selection and their navigation of book recommendation culture Based on three years of original research 2019 2021 including a quantitative survey with readers interviews with social media influencers and qualitative work with international Gen Z readers in a private Instagram chat space the authors highlight three core actions contemporary multimodal readers make choosing connecting and responding in a transmedia era where on and offline media practices co exist The contemporary multimodal reader or the MMR3 they argue illustrates the pervasiveness of recommendation culture reliance on trusted others and an ethic of responsiveness

10 Minutes 38 Seconds in This Strange World Elif Shafak,2019-09-24 Shortlisted for the 2019 Booker Prize Named a Best Book of the Year by Bookpage NPR Washington Post and The Economist A moving novel on the power of friendship in our darkest times from internationally renowned writer and speaker Elif Shafak In the pulsating moments after she has been murdered and left in a dumpster outside Istanbul Tequila Leila enters a state of heightened awareness Her heart has stopped beating but her brain is still active for 10 minutes 38 seconds While the Turkish sun rises and her friends sleep soundly nearby she remembers her life and the lives of others outcasts like her Tequila Leila s memories bring us back to her childhood in the provinces a highly oppressive milieu with religion and traditions shaped by a polygamous family with two mothers and an increasingly authoritarian father Escaping to Istanbul Leila makes her way into the sordid industry of sex trafficking finding a home in the city s historic Street of Brothels This is a dark violent world but Leila is tough and open to beauty light and the essential bonds of friendship In Tequila Leila s death the secrets and wonders of modern Istanbul come to life painted vividly by the captivating tales of how Leila came to know and be loved by her friends As her epic journey to the afterlife comes to an end it is her chosen family who brings her story to a buoyant and breathtaking conclusion

The Little Book ,1953 The Island of Missing Trees Elif Shafak,2021-11-02 A REESE S BOOK CLUB PICK Winner of the 2022 BookTube Silver Medal in Fiction Shortlisted for the Women s Prize for Fiction A wise novel of love and grief roots and branches displacement and home faith and belief Balm for our bruised times David Mitchell author of Utopia Avenue A rich magical new novel on belonging and identity love and trauma nature and renewal from the Booker shortlisted author of 10 Minutes 38 Seconds in This Strange World Two teenagers a Greek Cypriot and a Turkish Cypriot meet at a taverna on the island they both call home In the taverna hidden beneath garlands of garlic chili peppers and creeping honeysuckle Kostas

and Defne grow in their forbidden love for each other A fig tree stretches through a cavity in the roof and this tree bears witness to their hushed happy meetings and eventually to their silent surreptitious departures The tree is there when war breaks out when the capital is reduced to ashes and rubble and when the teenagers vanish Decades later Kostas returns He is a botanist looking for native species but really he s searching for lost love Years later a Ficus carica grows in the back garden of a house in London where Ada Kazantzakis lives This tree is her only connection to an island she has never visited her only connection to her family s troubled history and her complex identity as she seeks to untangle years of secrets to find her place in the world A moving beautifully written and delicately constructed story of love division transcendence history and eco consciousness The Island of Missing Trees is Elif Shafak s best work yet Book Reading Log B.
