

The background of the book cover features a network diagram. It consists of numerous circular nodes of varying sizes, some in shades of red and others in grey, connected by thin, light-colored lines. The nodes are distributed across the entire cover, with a higher density in the upper half. The overall color scheme is dominated by red in the top half and grey in the bottom half.

Cooperation Comity And Competition Policy:

Cooperation, Comity, and Competition Policy Professor Andrew T. Guzman, 2010-12-03 Cooperation Comity and Competition Policy edited by Andrew T Guzman illustrates how domestic competition law policies intersect with the realities of international business It offers a discussion of what might be done to improve the way in which cross border business is handled by competition policy The first part of the book provides country reports written by local experts explaining the extraterritorial reach of national laws Each country report summarizes existing domestic law and examines the conditions under which each country applies its substantive competition laws to conduct that takes place abroad These chapters also address the question of comity meaning the circumstances in which a country would decline to exercise jurisdiction on the grounds that another state is the more appropriate jurisdiction Finally the extent of cooperation between the local government and other states is examined In conducting cross border business activity these reports provide the reader with a sense of the multiple jurisdictions that a business must consider within the scope of how laws from various states interact and overlap The countries covered include Australia Brazil Canada China the EC Israel Japan Singapore and the United States The second part of the book offers several proposals for effectively managing these overlapping competition policy regimes Written by top academics and practitioners the proposals render some of the most important current thinking on the topic The country reports and the expert policy proposals together provide a unique perspective on international competition policy and the challenges of the international competition policy regime European Community Competition Policy Karel Van Miert, 1998-07 Discusses competition policy which has a key role to play in ensuring that European industry remains competitive Contents cooperation transport trans European networks competition state monopolies merger control information policy Charts tables European Community Competition Policy (1999) ,2000 Chapters foreword by Mario Monti Member of the EC with special responsibility for competition policy stat on EC activity in applying EC competition laws in 1999 antitrust Articles 81 merger control State aid general policy concept of aid assessing the compatibility of aid with the common market procedures international activities enlargement bilateral cooperation outlook for 2000 legislative annex cases discussed in this report European Community Competition Policy Karel Von Miert, 1998-03 Examines the structural factor of competition policy in the European Community Discusses the antitrust issue in various areas of business the information society transport energy sport competition financial services state monopolies monopoly rights telecommunications energy postal services transport merger control state aid international cooperation Central Eastern Europe U S WTO the OECD information policy Provides an outlook for 1997 includes an annex of case studies discussed in the report Charts tables Official Documents, Community Competition Policy in the Telecommunications Sector ,1995 Report on Competition Policy Commission of the European Communities, 1998 Report on Competition Policy European Commission, 2003 European Community Competition Policy ,1995 Community Competition Policy
