Burby, 2020-07-03 It is the place where wizards live forests are enchanted and things are often not what they seem It is also the home of editors, agents, marketers and art directors It is the world of children's book publishing Until the first edition of this book was released it was one of the most confusing places for hopeful writers to navigate as well Now in response to a rapidly changing industry award winning writer Liza N. Burby has revised and updated this complete guide to making the right children's book publisher say yes to your book for children or young adults This edition of How to Publish Your Children's Book begins by helping you define your book's category audience and marketplace so that you know exactly where your book fits in. You are then taught how to choose the best publishing companies for your book proposal as well as coached in how to write a winning submission package. Then the Square One System tells you exactly how to submit your package so that you optimize your chance of success while minimizing your time cost and effort. Also included is a special section on contracts that will turn legalese into plain English, allowing you to be a savvy player in the publishing game. Most important, this book will help you avoid the most common errors that so often prevent writers from reaching their goal. Throughout each chapter you will gain valuable insight into the typical thought processes of children's book editors, agents, and publishers, as well as practical advice from popular children's authors such as Jane Yolen and Johanna Hurwitz. Whether you're just thinking about writing a YA or children's book or are already a published author, you're sure to find How to Publish Your Children's Book a solid reference guide you can use time and time again.

Children's Writers' & Artists' Yearbook 2023 Bloomsbury Publishing, 2022-07-21

Foreword by bestselling and award-winning author Smriti Halls. The indispensable guide to writing for children of all ages, from pre school to young adults, this Yearbook provides inspirational articles from dozens of successful writers and illustrators on how to get your work published. It includes a directory of over a thousand up to date listings with contacts from across the media and publishing industry. This bestselling Yearbook is full of practical advice on all stages of the writing and illustration process, from getting started writing for different markets and genres and preparing an illustration portfolio through to submission to literary agents and publishers. It also covers the financial, contractual and legal aspects of being a writer and illustrator. Widely recognised as the essential support for authors and illustrators working across all forms: fiction, non-fiction, poetry, screen, audio and theatre, it is equally relevant to those wishing to self publish, as well as those seeking a traditional publisher agent deal. It includes advice from bestselling writers such as Sarah Crossan, Kiran Millwood Hargrave, Tom Palmer, David Wood and many more.
