Shoot, Edit, Share Kirsten Johnson, Jodi Radosh, 2016-09-13 Shoot Edit Share is an interactive accessible introduction to video production techniques concepts and terminology. With the increasing availability of affordable video equipment many students and professionals need to learn the basics of video production without being overwhelmed by technical details and equipment lists. Covering preproduction, production, editing, in post, and distribution, this book shows you how to produce video quickly and effectively for a range of clients from commercial firms to community service organizations. Key features include: A companion website including video interviews with professionals that demonstrate and reinforce techniques covered in the book; Service learning exercises that engage readers in real world learning experiences encouraging them to interact with their communities and new clients; Clear, easy to follow and heavily illustrated guides for all of the equipment and processes that go into video production; Focus on creating stories for a target audience and building convincing and engrossing narrative through videos; A thorough breakdown of all the techniques needed in post production through editing, well-designed graphics, and quality sound; A best practices guide to viral videos sharing video content online and increasing its exposure on social media sites; QR codes throughout the book that when scanned demonstrate video techniques and concepts related to what was read.

The Guide to Trauma-Informed and Emotionally Mindful Conflict Practice

Jeremy A. Rinker, 2024-10-15 Restoring social harmony requires both emotion and the difficult embrace of past felt traumas. Jeremy A. Rinker provides a clarion call for practitioners to bravely explore human emotions and past trauma. He interrogates current conflict intervention practice moving past interest-based negotiation and needs-based conflict resolution and provides a guide for more emotionally mindful and trauma-informed conflict intervention work. The Guide to Trauma Informed and Emotionally Mindful Conflict Practice addresses the underattended aspects of emotions and foregrounds historical harms in the work of resolving social conflict. It critically investigates trauma and human emotions as an underexplored resource in addressing local and entrenched community violence and integrates the theory and practice of trauma informed approaches using cultural framing, storytelling, resilience, and emotional human connection to chart new ways toward peace. This refocusing of peace work is critical for not only conflict resolution but also for overcoming the ossification of polarized social identity formations.

Information Literacy Instruction Amy R. Hofer, Silvia Lin Hanick, Lori Townsend, 2018-11-16 Provides information literacy practitioners with a thorough exploration of how threshold concepts can be applied to information literacy identifying important elements and connections between each concept and relating theory to practical methods that can transform how librarians teach A model that emerged from the Enhancing Teaching Learning Environments project in Great Britain threshold concepts are those transformative core ideas and processes in a given discipline that define the ways of thinking and practicing shared by experts Once a learner grasps a threshold concept new pathways to understanding and learning are opened up The authors of this book provide readers with both a substantial introduction to and a working knowledge of this emerging theory and then describe how it can be adapted for local information literacy instruction contexts Five threshold concepts are presented and covered in depth within the context of how they relate and connect to each other The chapters offer an in depth explanation of the threshold concepts model and identify how it relates to various disciplines and our own discipline information science and to the understandings we want our students to acquire This text will benefit readers in these primary audiences academic librarians involved with information literacy efforts at their institutions faculty teaching in higher education upper level college administrators involved in academic accreditation and high school librarians working with college bound students Octopus Escapes Again!
