of coaching trauma survivors but because I too am a survivor of unimaginable trauma A few years ago I watched my 3 year old son die in an auto accident just days after losing my Dad to cancer Shortly after losing my son I found myself homeless and beyond broke I desperately needed help from somebody who not only understood trauma but had survived and HEALED after experiencing trauma I needed help and I didn't know where else to turn So I began weekly therapy sessions After thousands of dollars and many years of meeting with different counselors I was diagnosed with PTSD The diagnosis was great at least now I had a name for the beast in my head but I was still not feeling the peace I was desperately seeking So I began my quest to heal from PTSD on my own so I could get control over my mind and emotions and create a new life for myself my life after trauma I know from personal experience that trauma can destroy everything you value It can leave you broke mentally financially and spiritually It destroys friendships and relationships The very things you once placed so much value on no longer matter After years of studying trauma and PTSD I began to coach other trauma survivors and I discovered that we all seem to have a common theme in the way our brains and bodies react when they try to process the trauma and damage that has taken place I made a promise to myself that when I had healed from trauma that I would help others heal from their traumas so I created a simple step by step guide in the pages of this short book called The Trauma Survivor's Guide To Healing Journey Through Trauma Gretchen L. Schmelzer, PhD, 2018-02-06 For survivors of PTSD and repeated relational trauma and the people who love them Gretchen Schmelzer watched too many people quit during treatment for trauma recovery They found it too difficult or too frightening or just decided that for them it was too late But as a therapist and trauma survivor herself Dr Schmelzer wants us to know that it is never too late to heal from trauma whether it is the suffering caused within an abusive relationship or PTSD resulting from combat Sometimes what feels like a big setback is actually an unexpected difficult step forward So she wrote Journey Through Trauma specifically for survivors to help them understand the terrain of the healing process and stay on the path There are three basic principles that every trauma survivor should know Healing is possible It requires courage And it cannot be done alone Traumas that happen more than once child abuse sexual abuse domestic violence gang violence even war are all relational traumas They happened inside a relationship and therefore must be healed inside a relationship whether that relationship is with a therapist or within a group Journey Through Trauma gives us a map to help guide us through that healing process see where the hard parts show up and persevere in the process of getting well We learn the five phases that every survivor must negotiate along the way and come to understand that since the cycle of healing is not linear circling back around to a previous stage does not mean defeat it actually means progress as well as facing new challenges Authoritative and accessible Journey Through Trauma provides support for survivors and their loved ones through one of the most challenging but necessary processes of healing that anyone can face Healing Trauma David Reyes, 2020-12-14 There are events in life that simply paralyze us The burden becomes so heavy that it seems impossible to move forward and we come to think that no one can help us If you are one of
