Report Writing for Criminal Justice Professionals Larry S. Miller, John T. Whitehead, 2013-11-28 The criminal justice process is dependent on accurate documentation. Criminal justice professionals can spend 50-75% of their time writing administrative and research reports. Report Writing for Criminal Justice Professionals Fifth Edition provides practical guidance with specific writing samples and guidelines for providing strong reports. Much of the legal process depends on careful documentation and the crucial information that lies within but most law enforcement, security, corrections and probation and parole officers have not had adequate training in how to provide well-written, accurate brief and complete reports. Report Writing for Criminal Justice Professionals covers everything officers need to learn from basic English grammar to the difficult but often ignored problem of creating documentation that will hold up in court. This new edition is updated to include timely information including extensive coverage of digital reporting, updates on legal issues and privacy rights and expanded coverage of forensics and scientific reporting. Important concepts are emphasized with related checklists and complemented by real world example forms. Each chapter concludes with a sample test for self-evaluating purposes. Includes new and updated information on digital forms and data entry techniques.

Craig Rozniecki, 2019-02-17 In this book, Rozniecki tackles every random topic a Mensa member could think up and if it were possible even more. In The Kind Hearted Smartass Volume 3 Maybe The Best of the Trilogy, you'll learn all about how a Tinder CEO didn't know the definition of sodomy, why the TGI Fridays mistletoe drones idea was worse than slippers in sandals, what the next hangry might be and how online IQ tests read to a snarky mind. Not only that, Rozniecki provides the top ten times when it's best to not take a selfie, explains how Congress is like a marriage, points out the fact that the Flonase tagline is stupid and crushes Americans' hopes that Facebook's Mark Zuckerberg will give them all of his money, cars, homes and beauty tips.
