Postapocalyptic Fiction and the Social Contract Claire P. Curtis, 2010-07-17 Postapocalyptic Fiction and the Social Contract We'll Not Go Home Again provides a framework for our fascination with the apocalyptic events The popular appeal of the end of the world genre is clear in movies novels and television shows Even our political debates over global warming nuclear threats and pandemic disease reflect a concern about the possibility of such events This popular fascination is really a fascination with survival how can we come out alive And what would we do next The end of the world is not about species death but about beginning again This book uses postapocalyptic fiction as a terrain for thinking about the state of nature the hypothetical fiction that is the driving force behind the social contract The first half of the book examines novels that tell the story of the move from the state of nature to civil society through a Hobbesian a Lockean or a Rousseauian lens including Lucifer's Hammer by Larry Niven and Jerry Pournelle Alas Babylon by Pat Frank Malevil by Robert Merle and Into the Forest by Jean Hegland The latter half of the book examines Octavia Butler's postapocalyptic Parable series in which a new kind of social contract emerges one built on the fact of human dependence and vulnerability Those Who Remain G. Michael Hopf, 2016-12-30 THE FINAL CHAPTER IN THE VAN ZANDT SAGA IS HERE The war between the Republic of Cascadia and the rogue nation Western Canada is raging With support from President Cruz in the United States Gordon Van Zandt has assembled a formidable army to march north and engage the forces of Western Canada who have occupied much of the panhandle of Idaho Gordon must defeat Jacques and his army swiftly but to do so requires a final decisive battle This battle will be do or die for Gordon and his fledgling republic but is not the only problem Gordon is facing With much of his attention focused on Jacques he must also dedicate time to a political war brewing in McCall and Olympia There he'll discover his adversary is the most cunning and cut throat of any enemy he has ever faced on the battlefield When it all ends some who've stood with Gordon will be lost and those who remain pray that their sacrifices will usher in the new world they've been fighting so hard for The End G. Michael Hopf, 2013-10-30 A man fights to protect his family in this postapocalyptic survival novel the first in the New World series Young Gordon Van Zandt valued duty and loyalty to country above all so after 9/11 he dropped out of college and joined the Marine Corps This idealism vanished one fateful day in a war torn city in Iraq Ten years later he is still struggling with the ghosts of his past when a new reality is thrust upon him and his family North

America Europe and the Far East have all suffered a devastating Super EMP attack which causes catastrophic damage to the nation's power grid and essential infrastructures Everything from cell phones to cars to computers cease to function putting society at a standstill With civilization in chaos Gordon must fight for the limited and fast dwindling resources He knows survival requires action and cooperation with his neighbors but as the days wear on so does all sense of civility within his community and so he must make some of the most difficult decisions of his life in order to ensure his family's safety
