Countering The New Terrorism:

Countering the New Terrorism Ian O. Lesser, 1999 Recent bombings of U S embassies in Africa remind us that U S citizens and U S interest are not immune to terrorism Featuring the works of world renowned experts this book traces the recent evolution of international terrorism against civilian and U S military targets looks ahead to where terrorism is going and assesses how it might be contained Radicalization, Terrorism, and Conflict Rachel Monaghan, Tali

Walters, 2013-07-26 Radicalization Terrorism and Conflict is a collection of scholarly works authored by international researchers and leading thinkers addressing contemporary history making issues in international security and terrorism from an interdisciplinary perspective Contributors to this edited volume represent global perspectives ideas analysis and research Radicalization Terrorism and Conflict transmits relevant findings theory and policy ideas for scholars of security and terrorism studies for policy makers and to the general public who are interested in keeping up with this global area of concern It provides a jumping off point for conversation and collaboration that can lead to new knowledge and broader understanding As an interdisciplinary collection of manuscripts this book integrates and synthesizes theory research and public policy analysis in an effort to solve the complex questions and problems presented by this topic Recognition of the need to approach the problems of radicalization terrorism and interpersonal conflict from an interdisciplinary perspective is gaining strength within academic settings policy institutes and global conferences Unlike most recent edited books on the subject that are on the market at this time Radicalization Terrorism and Conflict provides an interdisciplinary approach to understanding related current issues This approach encourages a broader perspective and thought process trans discipline and global collaboration and cooperation and an integrated synthesis of knowledge Radicalization Terrorism and Conflict opens with an analysis of the ongoing phenomenon of the Arab Spring In Section 1 contributors look at how players in the theatres of local and international terror become radicalized Section 2 analyzes how terrorism becomes manifest in the global theatre and how governments and their actors attempt to prevent it Section 3 presents research to bring understanding to the actors behavior and provide settings for future collaboration in understanding these phenomena

Explaining Islamist Insurgencies: The Case Of Al-jamaah Al-islamiyyah And The Radicalisation Of The Poso Conflict, 2000-2007 Muhammad Tito Karnavian, 2014-09-05 Since 9 11 many books have been published on Islamic terrorism but few of these have considered the issue from the perspective of strategic studies or in terms of an insurgency As a result much of this literature ignores the process of radicalisation and fails to ascertain why some people turn to terrorism while others from the same background do not To counter this trend Explaining Islamist Insurgencies explains how and why the process of Islamist radicalisation is an important step towards acts of terrorism and in the formation of terrorist organisations by focusing on Poso a small town in Indonesia that experienced years of armed sectarian conflict between Muslim and Christian communities in 2000 2007 Building on the frameworks provided by previous studies Muhammed Tito Karnavian employs communications theory to explore the necessary precursors for the legitimising ideology in this case Salafi jihadism to be effectively disseminated With nearly 20 years of experience in academia and counter terrorism operations in Indonesia and as the current Chief of Papua Police Karnavian employs his unparalleled access to information and individuals to delineate the various stages of the radicalisation of the Poso conflict and how radical organisations such as al Jamaah al Islamiyyah JI came to be involved This unique first hand account of a counter terrorist operation concludes by offering general policy implications that will be of use to both academics and practitioners

The Enemy of My Enemy George Michael, 2006 In the violent world of radical extremists the enemy of my enemy is my friend This study reveals how that precept plays out in the unexpected bonding between militant Islam and the extreme right in America and Europe It provides an insightful and sane look at the possibilities for collaboration between these groups

Terrorism and Counter-terrorism Thomas A. Imobighe, A. N. T. Eguavoen, 2006 Seven Africanist scholars from the African Strategic and Peace Research Group in Nigeria here address the threat of terrorism in the context of the global strategic climate The study is against the background of the altered shape of the global security equation and the devalued utility of the notion of security through state centric military preparedness They posit that failure to grasp its exact nature is leading to the spread to parts of Africa hitherto regarded as relatively safe Further the adverse socio political conditions on the continent have increased Africa's vulnerability. They examine areas where the experiences of other regions are relevant providing both a regional and global context. Professor Thomas Imobighe is Director of the Centre for Strategic and Development Studies at Ambrose Alli University Edo State. Dr Agatha Eguavoen is Reader and Associate Professor in the Department of Sociology at Ambrose Alli University Edo State.

ASEAN-Korea Relations Ho Khai Leong, 2007. This book examines the growing interdependence between ASEAN and Korea and the political and economic realities governing the relationship. Leading experts from ASEAN and Korea discuss the emerging issues in areas of domestic and regional security environments, non-traditional security, regional trade arrangements, Korean relations with the new ASEAN member states and the prospects of community building with special reference to the roles of Korea and ASEAN. It also provides a serious and thought-provoking evaluation of future ASEAN-Korea relations in light of the growing trend towards East Asian regionalism.

The New York Times Index, 1927. Great Powers and Violent Non-state Actors Olga Bogatyrenko, 2007. Terrorism's Unanswered Questions Adam B. Lowther, Beverly Lindsay, 2009. In the wake of the September 11, 2001 attacks on the United States, terrorism became a topic for the masses to explore rather than the hidden purview of analysts and scholars tucked away at the CIA or in the ivory tower. Now more than five years later, there remains much to be discovered about terrorism and its causes. This volume takes a look at some of terrorism's unanswered questions: How do we define terrorism? What threat does the United States face from weapons of mass destruction? Why has international law failed to stop terrorism? These are but three of the questions addressed in this volume. Book Jacket

Non-state Violence, Supporters, and Targets Belgin San, 2009. Tulsa Journal of Comparative & International Law, 2002. Information Warfare and Organizational Decision-making Alexander Kott, 2007. This volume shows how to mitigate attacks on organizational decision making and predict the impact of attacks on robustness, quality and timeliness of an organization. Moreover, this book explains how to manage in real time the processes of attacking enemy organizations or defending friendly ones. By integrating artificial intelligence, game theory, control theory, management science, organizational science and cognitive modeling, this resource helps professionals rethink the relations between organization warfare and information.

Governance, Globalization and Public Policy Patricia Kennett, 2008. Governance, Globalization and Public Policy is concerned with exploring the nature of the policy arena in the context of globalization and the reconstitution of the state. The contributors to this book seek to broaden, extend and integrate theoretical, conceptual and substantive policy debates. The book begins by exploring the concepts and perspectives associated with globalization and governance, the relationship between them and the repercussions for public policy and the state. It also considers developments at the global and regional levels and the implications of the emergence of new regulatory regimes in the context of liberalization and privatization. The focus then turns to a broad range of substantive areas of public policy such as human rights, health and health care, housing, markets, poverty, security and counter terrorism. Together, the chapters provide a thorough, integrated insight into the relationship between global processes governance and public policy across a range of policy domains Providing a comprehensive analysis of patterns and processes of governance in specific areas of public policy this book will be of great interest to students undertaking programmes in social policy social administration public policy and political science as well as researchers and academics concerned with the policymaking process
