Allison,James K. Beggan,Olivia Efthimiou,2019-06-21 Heroism is a rich elusive phenomenon Any adequate understanding of heroic behavior requires a new type of scholarly imagination one that taps into human artistic sensibilities as much as it does the rigors of scientific inquiry In an important sense we invoke a meta version of the call to heroic imagination by Franco Blau and Zimbardo 2011 who describe such imagination as a mind set and a collection of attitudes p 13 that can steer everyday people toward heroic achievement This eBook also merges our understanding of heroism with heroic leadership demonstrating that heroic leadership applies the principles of heroism in moving groups toward noble collective goals This eBook represents an effort by a distinguished group of authors to unleash their own creative mindsets attitudes and imaginations in their scholarship on heroism and heroic leadership Children's Books and Their Creators Anita Silvey,1995 Unique in its coverage of contemporary American children's literature this timely single volume reference covers the books our children are or should be reading now from board books to young adult novels Enriched with dozens of color illustrations and the voices of authors and illustrators themselves it is a cornucopia of delight 23 color 153 b/w illustrations The Parent's Journal Guide to Raising Great Kids Bobbi Conner,1997 The Parent's Journal Guide to Raising Great Kids is a comprehensive book of ingredients for raising children It is based upon Bobbi Conner's experience as a mother and upon the ten years of research and broadcast interviews Bobbi has conducted in putting together The Parent's Journal her award winning public radio show that reaches 1.4 million parents a week The Parent's Journal Guide identifies the most important things every child needs in order to develop and thrive and presents easy everyday opportunities to meet these needs through the ordinary daily routine of parents and children. Through over 700 in-depth interviews on topics ranging from temper tantrums to kids in sports to baby's first words to homework hassles, Bobbi has sifted through a vast assortment of parenting information to find the best tried and true parenting wisdom. Each chapter of The Parents Journal Guide is formatted to include three distinctive accessible components: What Kids Need, Parent's Job Description, and Everyday Opportunities, and will include information targeting the different stages in your child's life.

YC Young Children, 2003 Contemporary Issues in Primary Education

Mark Brundrett, Gary Beauchamp, Paul Latham, Malini Mistry, Michelle Murray, Becky Taylor, Peter Wood, 2022-10-03. This book was developed as part of the celebrations for the 50th anniversary of the founding of the journal Education 3-13 which has always had primary education as its main focus. The journal has been published by Routledge since 2007 and is the most important academic publication in the field internationally. This book has been edited by a team of academics and senior practitioners, all of whom are members of the Board of the journal or the Association for the Study of Primary Education, which is the owning body of the journal. It will serve as an excellent resource to researchers and students of primary education. Topics include major contemporary issues such as key challenges in the field, learning and teaching, wellbeing, teachers' work and professionalism, and outdoor learning. The chapters in this book comprise articles published in Education 3-13 in the last ten years.

Policy, Provision and Practice for Special Educational Needs and Disability Peter Wood, 2021-12-30. This book showcases the diverse nature of policy provision and practice for special educational needs and disability (SEND) across different international settings. Situated across a backdrop of varied international policies relating to inclusion, the book offers insights into the rhetoric of SEND policy and practice across a range of settings to contribute to our understanding of SEND provision. It explores the complexities, concerns and challenges experienced by staff, pupils, parents and carers in contemporary education settings. Chapters draw on empirical research and are structured around four parts: special education needs and disability within policy, stakeholder perceptions and experiences of SEND provision, meeting the needs of SEND children and moving towards inclusive practice. The volume will challenge, thought stimulate, critique and provoke debate in the field of special educational needs both locally and globally and will be of interest to researchers and postgraduate students in the field of inclusive education, special needs education and comparative education.

The Making of a Reader

Marilyn Cochran-Smith, 1984. This volume helps parents and early childhood educators understand the nature of early literacy at home and at school. Ways in which nursery school structures support and extend children's literacy are explored. This volume, based on an 18-month ethnographic study of story reading and other literacy events in nursery school, describes parents' attitudes, beliefs and values about literacy, nursery school organization of time and space, how reading and writing is used by nursery school participants, and how story reading events help children learn to make sense of books and use books to learn about the world.
