What is the phonics screening check?

The phonics screening check is a test that children take at the end of Year 1. It is designed to assess their phonics skills. The test consists of two parts. In the first part, children are asked to read a list of words. In the second part, they are asked to write a list of words. The test is designed to assess their ability to read and write words that they have not seen before.

The phonics screening check is an important part of the Year 1 curriculum. It helps teachers to identify children who may need extra support with their phonics skills. It also helps children to develop their phonics skills and to become more confident readers and writers.
