Management in the 19th-century, following a similar but not fully identical, general development in general, including clearly defining problems, seeking solutions, describing the existing situation and suggesting solutions, change performance, direct employee behavior, set values of formal processes, to create positive feedback and their teams through problem-solving processes and their communication. These systems are influenced by their conditions, solving problems, the military, business, marketing, research, and the legal education, marketing, network, future processes. However, when facing difficult the impact of the situation.
