The Way That Lives in the Heart

Jean Elizabeth DeBernardi,2006 The Way That Lives in the Heart is a richly detailed ethnographic analysis of the practice of Chinese religion in the modern multicultural Southeast Asian city of Penang Malaysia The book conveys both an understanding of shared religious practices and orientations and a sense of how individual men and women imagine represent and transform popular religious practices within the time and space of their own lives This work is original in three ways First the author investigates Penang Chinese religious practice as a total field of religious practice suggesting ways in which the religious culture including spirit mediumship has been transformed in the conjuncture with modernity Second the book emphasizes the way in which socially marginal spirit mediums use a religious anti language and unique religious rituals to set themselves apart from mainstream society Third the study investigates Penang Chinese religion as the product of a specific history rather than presenting an overgeneralized overview that claims
