 Edition July 2012 Surprise was highly important to the success of American forces in minimum time and with minimum loss It was dependent not only upon rapidity of movement but upon the efficiency and effectiveness of counterintelligence measures The object of this manual was to enumerate and clarify the various measures that could be adopted to destroy the effectiveness of the enemy intelligence system These measures were either negative designed to conceal the American forces actual situation and intentions or to counteract injurious propaganda within American lines or positive designed to create in the mind of the enemy false conceptions of the American situation and intentions or capabilities Contents Object
