The Young Child Donna Sasse Wittmer, Sandra H. Petersen, Margaret B. Puckett, 2016-02 Note This is the loose leaf version of The Young Child and does not include access to the MyEducationLab. To order MyEducationLab R with Enhanced Pearson eText packaged with the loose leaf version use ISBN 0134027353. This widely used text discusses major development theories as they relate to physical, social, and emotional and cognitive domains and contains extensive applications for teaching and working with young children. It provides students of child development with a sound knowledge base of current theory and research in the field of early childhood growth, development, and learning and its translation into practice in the daily lives of very young children. Time honored theories of child development are discussed and applied to current knowledge about how children develop and learn, and contemporary theories such as Cognitive Core Systems and Neoconstructivism and Contextual theories Dynamic Systems and Relationship Based Theories are included. The authors apply theories and the supporting research based on these theories to Early Childhood Education practices in the classroom and with families. The new edition features a strong emphasis on the application of information, examples of early learning guidelines and outcome standards, new Meeting the Needs of All Children sections, complete updating throughout, and video exercises and a policy video question for applying knowledge. Also available with MyEducationLab R. This title is also available with MyEducationLab, an online homework tutorial and assessment program designed to work with the text to engage students and improve results. Within its structured environment, students see key concepts demonstrated through real classroom video footage, practice what they learn, test their understanding, and receive feedback to guide their learning and ensure they master key learning outcomes.
