

Fourth-Grade Guide: Steal All You Can

1. Describe the relationship between the United States and the Soviet Union. They were Allies in the war, but they became competitors for being the most powerful country in the world.
2. List 3 ways that the Soviets gathered their information. (How did the spies collect information and communicate?)
  - Spies and wrote in code
  - Had secret meetings
  - Used aliases (fake identities)
3. How does Robert Oppenheimer change throughout the story? (How does he feel about the bomb in the beginning and end?)
  - At the beginning, he feels a patriotic duty to build the bomb, but after Hiroshima, Oppenheimer does not want countries to try to build atomic bombs.
4. Describe the order and point of view of this story.
  - At the beginning, the FBI is arresting Goldwasser after he had spied for the Soviet Union. The story then jumps back in time sixteen years to the very beginning of the atomic bomb race and Oppenheimer's beginnings. At the end, Goldwasser returns to hide the evidence of his espionage (16 years have passed).
5. Name 3 spyfliers in this story.
  - How the Norwegian spies blew up the Memonic heavy water plant.
  - How the Soviet Union infiltrated the U.S. atomic bomb project.
  - How physicists created the atomic bomb at Los Alamos.
6. How does the author combine the three stories into one larger story?
  - Shulman shows the wealth of dry comments with the others and comes full circle later on in the book. Each story affected the other parts. (Example: Beginning with Harry Gold's arrest, and the end shows Gold regaining his status to hide the evidence.)
7. How does the author make the book seem like a fictional story?
  - Has characters talking back and forth
  - Has different settings
  - Has conflicts and themes like a story does
8. What is the theme of the story?
  - Atomic bombs are dangerous to all of humanity.
  - Atomic bombs cause international tension between countries.
  - The race for the atomic bomb was intense and full of intrigue.
9. What is the purpose of the prologue?
  - The prologue introduces the characters and setting of a story. (Example - Harry Gold hiding evidence and getting arrested)
10. What is the purpose of the epilogue?
  - Shows readers what happens after a story ends.
