The textbook applies media literacy principles and critical thinking to the key issues facing young adults today from analyzing and creating media messages to verifying information and understanding online privacy. Through discussion prompts, writing exercises, key terms, and links, readers are provided with a framework from which to critically consume and create media in their everyday lives. This new edition includes updates covering privacy aspects of AI, VR, and the metaverse, and a new chapter on digital audiences, gaming, and the creative and often unpaid labor of social media and influencers. Concise, creative, and curated, this book highlights the cultural, political, and economic dynamics of media in contemporary society and how consumers can mindfully navigate their daily media use.
