

Child Care Fund Program Participation Manual

June 2017

CocoKids is a private, non-profit corporation governed by a volunteer Board of Directors that has provided a variety of services to children and families in Contra Costa County since 1976. Through Area Offices in Richmond, Concord, and Antioch, CocoKids offers a wide variety of child care programs and services designed to support and empower parents and child care providers.

The purpose of this booklet is to inform both parents and licensed child care providers of the requirements which govern CocoKids's subsidized programs. Updated versions of this Manual supersede any previous versions. Parents and providers have the option to participate in this program and as participants have a duty to abide by the rules and regulations herein.

The Child Care Fund Program operates in accordance with applicable State laws and regulations, and advocates for high quality child care placements for all children. Staff speaks a number of diverse languages and offers culturally competent services to the families of Contra Costa County. Staff also receives ongoing training on case management and confidentiality as well as training on early indicators of program misrepresentation and is directed to contact their supervisors if they have concerns. CocoKids is committed to open and timely communication. It is our policy to treat all families and child care providers fairly and respectfully.

OUR VISION

Contra Costa County's children are nurtured, healthy and achieve their full potential.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

CocoKids provides leadership to promote and advance quality care and early education.

Through a variety of initiatives, programs and services, CocoKids partners with:

- Parents - to strengthen families
- Child Care Providers - to build a system of quality care and early education that respects parents as primary caregivers and teachers, values diversity and encourages children to make positive life choices
- Community - to broaden the base of support for children, families and quality care and early education

The SAGE Handbook of Participatory Research and Inquiry Danny Burns, Jo Howard, Sonia M. Ospina, 2021-08-04
This SAGE Handbook presents contemporary cutting edge approaches to participatory research and inquiry. It has been designed for the community of researchers, professionals and activists engaged in interventions and action for social transformation and for readers interested in understanding the state of the art in this domain. The Handbook offers an overview of different influences on participatory research, explores in detail how to address critical issues and design effective participatory research processes and provides detailed accounts of how to use a wide range of participatory research methods. Chapters cover pioneering new participatory research techniques including methods that can be operationalised at scale, approaches to engaging the poorest and most marginalised and ways of harnessing technologies to increase the scope of participation amongst others. Drawing upon a wide range of disciplines and bringing together contributing authors from across the globe, this Handbook will be of interest to an international readership from across the broad spectrum of social sciences including social policy, development studies, geography, sociology, criminology, political science, health and social care, education, psychology, business management. It will also be an insightful and practical resource for facilitators, community workers and activists for social change.

Handbook on Child Rights and School Psychology Bonnie Kaul Nastasi, Stuart N. Hart, Shereen C. Naser, 2020-05-18
This handbook examines the meanings, implications and transformative potential of a child rights approach for school psychology. It focuses on the school community in which psychology is committed to promoting well-being, learning and development of all children. The handbook begins with an overview of the 1989 United Nations Committee on the Rights of the Child (CRC) and explores main themes such as survival, protection, development, participation and nondiscrimination. Chapters provide guidance in promoting and protecting child rights when dealing with critical issues relevant to the school community, including well-being, freedom from violence and access to high quality education. In addition, chapters analyze and offer recommendations for child rights applications within the roles and responsibilities of school psychologists. The handbook concludes with future directions for achieving a child rights approach for school psychology. Topics featured in this handbook include: The current status of child rights in the international community; Accountability for child rights by school psychology; Collaborative home, school and community practices aimed at promoting family support; Protecting child rights within the realm of competitive sports; CRC and school based intervention programming; Promoting child rights through school.
