Is addiction in a family member contributing to upset and stress in your child? Do you want to help your child understand the problem and communicate about his/her feelings? Do you want to help your child develop healthier coping strategies? I Can Be Me is a helping book for professionals and parents who want to help children of alcoholic parents. Written for children ages 4 to 12 it can be read by a child alone or worked through with a caring adult. Simple line drawings and text speak to children in a language they understand and are based on the real experiences of children with addicted parents. Written from the perspective of children whose parents are addicted to alcohol and various other drugs this book helps children take off the masks that hide their true feelings and educates them about alcohol or drug abuse in the family. Entertaining drawings and simple text make this book easy to understand and invite children to add their own thoughts and feelings. Children often feel alone in homes where alcoholism or drug abuse is present. I Can Be Me helps children understand more about addiction and realize that they are not to blame for their parents' problems. Through a series of creative exercises and activities children learn about healthy coping strategies and that they are not alone. Recovering Our Children John C. Cates, Jennifer Cummings, 2003-01-21. Art Greer, Assistant to the General Presbyter of the Presbytery of New Covenant Presbyterian Church U.S.A. When parents came to me having discovered their child was involved in drugs and asked, "What in the world do I do now?" my answer was simple: See John Cates. It still is. Barring that, this book, Recovering Our Children, is the next best thing. Phil Lineberger, Pastor of William Trace Baptist Church of Houston, Texas, and Past President of the Baptist General Convention of Texas. Recovering Our Children is a winner. John Cates and Jennifer Cummings draw upon their education and experience to help parents recognize the evidence of a young person's abuse of chemicals to help the parents and young person reach out to those who can help and to help the parents and young person reclaim control of their own lives. This book will serve as a valuable and encouraging tool for those who have reached the end of their rope. I highly recommend Recovering Our Children. Patricia Creer, Past President of the Texas Association of Addiction Professionals. Recovering Our Children, derived from experience with thousands of children and their families, is reflective of the hard-earned lessons of professionals who have intervened in a personal way for a number of years. I hope that this book will reach many in need; for it will help them. But I also hope that those who compose the community that will nurture Alternative Peer Groups will read it and pay attention.
