Learning series is a series of topic books written around the Early Years Foundation Stage designed to make planning easy. This book takes you through six weeks of activities on the theme of the local area and where children live. Each activity is linked to a specific Early Learning Goal and the book contains a skills overview so that practitioners can keep track of which areas of learning and development they are promoting. This book also includes a photocopiable page to give to parents with ideas for them to get involved with their children's topic as well as ideas for bringing the six weeks of learning together. The weekly themes in this book include on the high street people where I live parks and gardens safe and strong getting around and big buildings.

A Student Guide to the SEND Code of Practice Trevor Cotterill, 2023-09-14. In this essential textbook for students, Trevor Cotterill delves into the four broad areas of need identified in the SEND Code of Practice 2015, providing a spotlight on current research into a range of identified difficulties as well as outlining the appropriate pedagogical approaches required to support these needs in children and young people. Closely mirroring the SEND Code of Practice 2015, each distinct area of need associated with cognition and learning, communication and interaction, physical and sensory issues, and social, emotional and mental health difficulties features essential overviews of research and current thinking within each area. Supported with case studies, learning objectives, and reflection points, this text includes discussions on autistic spectrum disorders, profound and multiple learning difficulties, ADHD, mental health, physical and sensory difficulties, and adverse childhood experiences as they relate to the SEND Code of Practice 2015. Fully endorsed by evidence-based research involving children, young people, adults, and their families, this text encourages students to understand that SEND is a complex area and provides opportunities to reflect on previous experience, harnessing them with knowledge for future practice. Concise yet rigorous in its explanations and coupled with signposted activities and suggestions for further reading throughout, A Student Guide to the SEND Code of Practice will be invaluable to undergraduate students undertaking a programme of study incorporating special educational needs and disability as a single or joint honours.

Experimental Coasts in Mixed Media Mike Bernard, Susie Hodge, 2021-06-10. Acclaimed mixed media artist Mike Bernard has been at the forefront of collage painting for decades, and his work has a sought-after vitality. He brings his latest guidance, ideas, and techniques on a subject about which he is passionate: coastal painting. From his home near the Devon coast, he and co-author art writer Susie Hodge cover all aspects of mixed media painting. From considering composition and looking for contrasts to reducing elements for greater impact and even moving towards abstraction, from working with limited palettes to including imaginary colours to a painting. From collaging with torn magazines, tin foil, plastic, newsprint to combining inks, oil pastels, PVA, acrylic, and watercolours. From playing with proportion to create mood to using thick and thin oils for effect. And of course, how to capture the mood and atmosphere of coastal life, from quiet stretches to busy harbours around the world. The authors include several step-by-step projects to demonstrate techniques, plus a series of experimental exercises that help the reader try something new. A masterclass from a popular artist with stunning artwork of coasts from around the globe.
